

MEET

SHARON LIER

I have spent over 40 years in the insurance business, and the most rewarding part of my job is helping people understand their home and auto insurance better. There are many changes happening in the industry, and my passion is to make sure that people do not have surprises at claim time. Also of major importance is providing best value recommendations in my customers' insurance programs. The best value recommendation includes options showing various limits of liability and deductibles. With my experience as a licensed insurance agent, I am able to provide the understanding and peace of mind that people are looking for. I am happy to meet in person, over the phone, or on zoom.
