Rockdale County House Legislative Delegation Elects New Officers

ATLANTA – Members of the Rockdale County House Legislative Delegation recently met on Tuesday, January 19 to elect new officers to lead the legislative delegation during the 2021-2022 legislative term. State Representative Rhonda Taylor (D-Conyers) was elected to serve as chair of the Rockdale County House Legislative Delegation.

“It is an honor to serve Rockdale County citizens in this capacity during my first term as a state representative,” said Rep. Taylor. “Over the course of the next two years, this legislative delegation will work as a united force for positive change. Together, we will fight for legislation that will benefit our constituents back home in Rockdale County.”

In addition to electing Rep. Taylor as chair of the delegation, State Representative Doreen Carter (D-Lithonia) was elected as vice chair, and State Representative Regina Lewis-Ward (D-McDonough) was elected as the delegation’s secretary.

Representative Rhonda Taylor represents the citizens of District 91, which includes portions of DeKalb and Rockdale counties. She was elected to the House of Representatives in 2020.

Representative Doreen Carter represents the citizens of District 92, which includes portions of Rockdale and DeKalb counties. She was elected to the House of Representatives in 2015 and currently serves on the Code Revision, Education, Industry and Labor, Small Business Development and Special Rules committees.

Representative Regina Lewis-Ward represents the citizens of District 109, which includes portions of Henry, Newton and Rockdale counties. She was elected to the House of Representatives in 2020.
