

1787 Brewing Co Beer List

The "KINGS" FROST- Pumpkin Wheat Ale- #16 SEASONAL

Named for the late M. Domer Leibensperger AKA, King Frost, father, mentor and inspiration to all those around him. Brewed with wheat malt, pumpkin, and butternut squash, this fall seasonal is 1787's true tribute to Hamburg's annual King Frost Parade. A dash of pumpkin pie spice captures all the flavors of fall in this smooth, medium bodied beer. 5.5% ABV, 22 IBU

St. Marys- Belgian Style Ale #17

Brewed with Pilsner and Special Malt, this Belgian style ale has a nice combination of spice and dark fruit, with a soft malt character. Named after the Catholic Church that once graced State Street, this beer has a higher alcohol content and is sneaky smooth. 9.0% ABV

5oz. - $3.75 10oz. - $5.50 Growlers- $30.00 Growler re-fills - $20.00

Fern Sholly- IPA #6

Named after Hamburg native Fern Shollenberger, who played third base in the All-American girls pro baseball league from 1946-1954. This beer has a balanced hop bitterness, flavor and aroma from Centennial and Citra hops. A very easy drinking IPA. 7% ABV, 70 IBU

Kittatinny wheat -#14

A crisp clean wheat ale sure to please. Light bodied, yet full of flavor. 5.5% ABV, 20 IBU

Dunnerwetter (Do-na'-vetta)- Simcoe IPA- #13

An old German/Dutch quote. The Dunnerwetter is an India Pale Ale that offers notes of fruit and pine. Simcoe hops create a smooth, clean bitterness that every IPA drinker loves. Named by contest winner Kris Gantert, "Dunnerwetter" means thunderstorm in Pennsylvania Dutch.

5.7% ABV 77 IBU

The "Rock"- Blonde Ale- #10

A light crisp approach to a blonde ale with a light malt flavor. Peace out to all the daredevils taking the plunge into the Skook!! 4.5% ABV

Hawk Power – Amber Ale- #2

A slightly bitter beer with a smooth malt character. Caramel malt adds a toasted, toffee flavor finishing with citrusy hops. 5.0% ABV, 47 IBU

Kaercher Stadt- Blackberry Porter- #7

Named for the 250 acres that in 1787 became the town of Hamburg. A full bodied black porter with a rich blend of roasted flavor and blackberry notes. A 1787 Brewing Company favorite!! 5.9% ABV, 33 IBU

Uncle Jakes IPA- SLIM SERIES- #20

A tribute to Uncle Jake and the 18 wheel gang. Thanks for a great performance. Peace, love and beer!! An easy drinking mild IPA with a medium hop character and clean finish. 6% ABV, 50 IBU

Etchberger's Honor- #9

Named after Hamburg's Medal of Honor recipient Richard Etchberger. This beer is roasty and smooth with a slight oatmeal note. 6.2% ABV

Black Bridge- American Stout- #4

This strong roasted malt flavored beer is named after the bridge our parents always warned us about. Coffee and a very pronounced hop flavor make this beer as irresistible as taking a leap from the bridge into the Skook! Don't tell Mom! 6% ABV

5oz - $2.75 10oz - $4 16oz - $6 Flight - $10 Ask for a "Billy bomb", shot of bourbon in your PINT of beer!- $3

~Growlers~ 16oz- $9.5 64oz- $22-25 "Refills" 16oz- $6 64oz- $12-15

*Triple Berry Cider- Bouchette's finest. 5oz-$3~10oz-$5~16oz-$7.50 *Sorry no growler fills on cider