Season after Pentecost

Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Opening Prayer (unison)*

God our father, today we bring to mind all the faithful departed. We thank you for your constant and unceasing love, and for the strength, love, and peace that you have imparted in those who have lost loved one or friends. Thank you for each day that these loved ones have received your grace and confidence in the loving mercy of God for faith in the resurrection to new life and for the hope of being united in God's kingdom. And as we start this day asking for your guidance and presence to lead our steps, fill our hearts with peace and help us remain aware of you in everything we do. Grant us wisdom for good decisions and patience and kindness in our interactions, reflecting your love. In Jesus' name, amen.

Call to Worship (Psalms 100) ~ (unison)*

Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth.

² Worship the Lord with gladness;
come before him with joyful songs.

³ Know that the Lord is God.
It is he who made us, and we are his;
we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

⁴ Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and praise his name.

⁵ For the Lord is good and his love endures forever;
his faithfulness continues through all generations.

Scripture

Hebrews 11:1-6 NIV

Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see. ² This is what the ancients were commended for.

³ By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible.

⁴ By faith Abel brought God a better offering than Cain did. By faith he was commended as righteous, when God spoke well of his offerings. And by faith Abel still speaks, even though he is dead.

⁵ By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death: "He could not be found, because God had taken him away." For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God. ⁶ And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.
