God our father, today
we bring to mind all the faithful departed. We thank you for your
constant and unceasing

love, and for the
strength, love, and
peace that you have
imparted in those who have lost loved one or

friends. Thank you for each day that these
loved ones have received your grace and confidence in the loving

mercy of God for faith
in the resurrection to
new life and for the
hope of being united in God's kingdom. And as we start this day asking for your guidance and

presence to lead our
steps, fill our hearts
with peace and help us

remain aware of you in
everything we do.
Grant us wisdom for
good decisions and
patience and kindness

Our Scripture

Hebrews 11:1-6

NIV

A decorative border at the bottom of the slide, identical to the top one, featuring autumn leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and brown on a textured background.

Now faith is confidence in what we hope for
and assurance about
what we do not see.
<sup>2</sup> This is what the

ancients were commended for. <sup>3</sup> By faith we understand
that the universe was formed at God's

command, so that what is seen was not made
out of what was visible.
God a better offering

than Cain did. By faith
he was commended as righteous, when God
spoke well of his
offerings. And by faith

Abel still speaks, even though he is dead. <sup>5</sup> By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience

death: “He could not be found, because God
had taken him away.”
For before he was
taken, he was

commended as one who pleased God. <sup>6</sup> And without faith it is impossible to please
God, because anyone

who comes to him must
believe that he exists
and that he rewards
those who earnestly
seek him.
