Rachel Adcroft

Rachel Adcroft has trained in all genres of dance throughout her career whilst completing her dance diplomas in The Commonwealth Society of Teachers of the Dance Syllabus.

Rachel continued her education and development alongside the running of her own dance school, which has successfully won major prizes and awards.

Rachel herself has also won major soloist awards in her dance competitions throughout Australia.

After the rebrand of City of Adelaide Dancing Society to CanDance Australia in 2009, she founded CanDance for a Cure, an instrumental showcase of South Australian talents and dancing schools working together to raise funds for Cancer Research. CFAC now in its 11th year is providing opportunities for all Adelaide dancers to work and perform in a professional venue.

As an adjudicator Rachel, believes being passionate about all dance styles comes from a strong foundation of dance, expression, and creativity. Encouragement and development is a key aspect of a dancers journey, or way striving to be the best they can be.
