 - 5.9.1.3. A kicker is called out by having a second contact with the ball, outside of the kicking box
 - 5.9.1.4. A runner is out when they are hit / tagged with the ball while not on base (Except to the head or neck, whereas the “hit” is invalid and play continues – See k).
 - 5.9.1.5. A runner is out when they do not reach the next base prior to the ball / baseman having control of the ball while touching the base. This only occurs when running to first or if the runner is forced to another base. If not forced, the runner must be tagged/hit with the ball.
 - 5.9.1.6. A runner steps from a base or over runs a base and then is tagged or hit with the ball. (Except a first base over-run)
 - 5.9.1.7. A runner leads off a base before a ball is kicked (can be called out by the Umpires or Game Referee and does not require a defensive play).
 - 5.9.1.8. A runner does not return to a base (tag up) following a caught fly ball, prior to advancing. This does require a defensive play of either tagging the player or returning the ball to the original base before the runner arrives back to tag.
 - 5.9.1.9. A runner running outside the baseline, more than 4 feet to avoid being tagged (not including a natural rounding curve).
 - 5.9.1.10. A runner or other offensive player commits an unsafe or unsportsmanlike action such as, but not limited to, intentionally interfering with a play, or running/sliding into a base player.
 - 5.9.1.11. Ties are called in favor of the runner.
 - 5.9.1.12. A caught ball may touch the ground while in possession and control of a catching fielder and will still be considered an out.
 - 5.9.1.13. Balls hitting a runner above the shoulders (to the head or neck) are not considered an out, and play continues (unless the player is sliding, has fallen, was “ducking” or intentionally deflecting the ball with the head / neck).
 - 5.9.1.14. Any runner that is off their base at the release of a pitch is automatically out.
 - 5.9.1.15. A player kicks out of order (as determined by receiving the first pitch).
 - 5.9.1.16. A runner slides into first or does not use the safety base (after a warning).

- 5.9.1.17. Third out runs only count if the third out is not forced nor a caught fly, and the runner scores prior to the third out being called.

6. Offensive Play

6.1. Kicking Order

- 6.1.1. All teams must present a kicking order during warm-up, prior to the beginning of the game.
- 6.1.2. All players must kick: In the order as presented for that game. If a player does not or cannot kick, they cannot play.
- 6.1.3. Kicking orders: must be completed and given to the first base umpire and game referee prior to the beginning of the game.
- 6.1.4. Players kicking in the wrong order: (as determined by the first pitch) are considered an automatic out. This can be pointed-out by the opposing team or may be called out by the first base Umpire, or Game referee without the use of a challenge.
- 6.1.5. Late players: can be added (or subtracted) to the line-up up until the game reaches the bottom / last player in the lineup. At that point (top of the lineup) the lineup is frozen, and any adjustments or deviations from that point constitutes an automatic out. (With the exception of injury)
- 6.1.6. Injuries: Players unable to kick due to injury must sit out the remainder of the game, as well as any subsequent games held the same day. There is no automatic “out” for injured players no longer kicking.

6.2. Kicking

- 6.2.1. A kick is defined by a forward movement by the leg and foot.
- 6.2.2. Below the knee: Only kicks occurring below the knee are legal. All others are considered fouls.
- 6.2.3. Bunting: bunts are legal; however, the foot must have forward motion when kicking.
- 6.2.4. Kicking zone: All kicks must occur with at least a portion of the planted foot behind the two (2) cones at the front of the zone. The kicking foot/leg may extend outside of the zone while completing the kick. Kicks where the planted foot is in front of the zone are considered illegal kicks and will be a foul ball that may be caught for an out unless the umpire has called a strike or ball prior to the kicker contacting the ball. Base runners may not advance on foul balls caught from an illegal kick.
- 6.2.5. Trapped or “stopped” balls: Are not legal and will be considered a foul ball.
- 6.2.6. A Double Kick: Inside the zone is an illegal kick foul (that can be caught for an out). Outside of the zone is considered an out.

- 6.2.7. Stationary Foot/Leg: A ball hitting a stationary foot/leg does not constitute a kick or attempted kick, and the pitch is whatever the Referee called prior to hitting the kicker.

6.3. The Count

- 6.3.1. Each player may receive a total of no more than 9 pitches. (2 strikes, 3 fouls & 3 balls is a full count of 8, the next pitch is the ninth, and determines the kicker's outcome.)
- 6.3.2. Three strikes are considered an out. A strike is any attempted kick that does not come in contact with the ball, or a pitch that is within the strike zone, but not kicked.
- 6.3.3. Fouls: Are not considered strikes, except in the case of a two-strike count (see c) Four foul balls are an out.
- 6.3.3.1. A Kick that flies past 1st or 3rd base is called fair or foul based on where it first touches ground. (A ball is fair if any portion of the ball touches the line.)
- 6.3.3.2. A Kick that rolls or bounces into foul territory prior to passing 1st or 3rd base and prior to any defensive player making contact, is considered foul. (Conversely, a rolling or bouncing ball that remains fair as they pass 1st or 3rd base is considered fair regardless of where it ends up after that.)
- 6.3.3.3. Legally kicked foul balls are considered "live" and can be caught for an out.
- 6.3.3.4. If a legally kicked foul ball is caught, runners may advance at their own risk if they have tagged up.
- 6.3.3.5. Foul balls caused by an illegal kick (above the knee or taking place anywhere outside of the box as defined by the planted foot) can be caught for an out. However, the play is not live, and runners cannot advance.
- 6.3.3.6. Any ball that touches a defensive player while both are in fair territory, is considered fair, regardless of whether the ball subsequently landed or traveled into foul territory.
- 6.3.4. Two-Strike Count: After two strikes, the next foul ball will then be considered a strike and the kicker is out.
- 6.3.5. Four Balls: is a walk. One base is awarded to the kicker.
- 6.3.5.1. Balls are pitches with no portion of them crossing the strike zone.
- 6.3.5.2. Balls are pitches that cross through the strike zone at a height greater than 6" as measured from the bottom of the ball.
- 6.3.5.3. Any pitch bouncing less than twice upon entering the strike zone. (Should the second or subsequent bounce occur inside the strike zone it will not be considered a ball).

- 6.3.6. Intentional Walks: Either by a pitcher “call” and no balls need to be pitched, or after four pitched balls with no other called pitches. (0-0-4 count). The kicker is then awarded 2 bases and other baserunners proceed only as forced.

6.4. Replacement Runners

- 6.4.1. Permitted
- 6.4.1.1. One per team, per inning.
 - 6.4.1.2. Kicker must successfully make it to first base before the substitution occurs. Replacement runners replace the base runner at first base (or subsequent bases in the case of injury).
 - 6.4.1.3. The Replacement runner is the last player out, or, the one prior, should that player already be running. If during the first inning with no outs, the last player on the kicking order shall be the Replacement runner.

6.5. Safety Base

- 6.5.1. Runners must use the safety base while running to first base.
- 6.5.1.1. After one warning, they will be considered out if not used.
 - 6.5.1.2. Runners may overrun first base and not tagged out, if no attempt is made to advance
 - 6.5.1.3. Once a runner changes direction to advance to second, they are subject to being tagged out.
 - 6.5.1.4. First base may be used by runner only if the baseman is blocking the safety base.

6.6. Base Coaches

 - 6.6.1.2. Contact (Hugs, High-Fives, etc.) is permitted only after time has been called ending active play.
 - 6.6.1.3. Any interference with active play, either physical, or by blocking the view of the Umpire, will result in a call against the offense. IE: Runner is out on the play.
 - 6.6.1.4. Only registered team members, regardless of their playing status in that game, may act as a base coach.

6.7. Backstop Player

- 6.7.1. The on-deck kicker shall be positioned to be a non-active player.

- 6.7.1.2. After one team warning (for not having a backstop player in position), all pitches until this player gets into position shall be counted as strikes (including fouls).
- 6.7.1.3. This non-active, “backstop” player may not assist in any way, including verbal coaching to the kicker as to the status of the pitch. After one team warning, any infractions will automatically register the pitch as a strike (including fouls).

- 6.9.2. Lead off: Runners may not lead off and can only advance once the kicker makes contact with the ball. Any runner off base at the time of a pitch is considered out. (5.9 I)
- 6.9.3. Tagging up: Runners who left the base after contact with the ball, must return to that base and tag up for any caught fly ball. Runners may then advance upon the initial first contact by a defensive player and need not wait until the completion of the catch.
- 6.9.4. Foul Fly Balls: Runners may advance, after tagging up, at their own risk following a caught foul fly ball, except in the case of an illegal kick, foul ball. (See 6.3 E3)
- 6.9.5. Stealing Bases: Prohibited. Base running may only occur during active play, following a kick.
- 6.9.6. Displaced Base: The runner is safe when they are in contact with the original location of the base, at the Umpire’s discretion.

- 6.9.8. Touching Home Plate: Runs only score when the runner touches home plate. A missed home plate at the end of active play (as called by the referee) results in no run scored and the player being called out.

 - 6.10.1.1. Overthrow: is defined as a ball thrown (kicked or deflected) to a first or third base player, that is not caught and subsequently goes beyond the sidelines (2.1 j).

 - 6.10.1.3. Interference: Interference is defined by any ball leaving the playing field, entering another active playing field, or coming in contact with any obstruction, (non-playing) person, or entity that could stop or change the direction of the ball or hamper the defensive players' ability to field or have access to the ball in any way. This includes tents, dugouts, trashcans, cars, chairs, stands, spectators, trees, pets, etc. Interference is at the discretion of the Game Referee and the play continues until the Game Referee stops play.
 - 6.10.1.4. Bounce backs: A ball hitting any of the field enclosure, vertical fencing, and remaining or bouncing back into the field of play is not considered interference.
