Colossians 4:2 – Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

This month, we will celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday. In the United States, our Thanksgiving was originally held in October rather than November. The first Thanksgiving on American soil was in the year 1621. It is a historical, real-life, all-American story about immigrants and Native Americans who shared food and peace. As we gather together this year with family and friends and thank God for His blessings, we truly become one.

John Wesley once said, “Thanksgiving is inseparable from true prayer; it is almost essentially connected with it. One who always prays is ever giving praise, whether in ease or pain, both for prosperity and for the greatest adversity.”

This Thanksgiving let us remember to offer our prayers of thanksgiving. Pray with a grateful heart and offer praise to God for life and for loved ones. Pray for God to lead us in His paths.

People have been so affected this year by disasters and violence. Let us pray for healing and for those working to restore lives and property. Pray for people who are hurting; and let our prayers not be words only, but words turned into actions.

God has provided us with so many blessings. We have joy and laughter; we have courage in the face of fear; and we can have hope where there is doubt. God is with us in all things.

Let us pray for each other, and for our community as we seek to grow stronger and grow in Christ. Pray for this church as we strive to reach the lost. Thanksgiving cannot ever be separated from prayer. Give thanks to the Lord with a grateful heart! I am thankful for each of you, and for our church. May the Lord continue His work here, as we follow Him into the future.

In His service,
Pastor Mark Davis

We Gather Together

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
He chastens and hastens his will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing,
Sing praises to his name: He forgets not his own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us
joining,
Ordaining, maintaining his kingdom
divine;
So from the beginning the fight we were winning;
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, All glory be thine!

We all do extol thee, thou leader
triumphant,
And pray that thou still our defender wilt be.
Let thy congregation escape tribulation;
Thy name be ever praised! O Lord, make us free!
Amen
