Introduction:

CEDRA in partnership with Cairn India is implementing the Micro level Intervention (MLI) in Cairn pipe line villages under CSR in Gujarat. The main focus of MLIs is Education and Health sectors. Accordingly, Teacher's day was celebrated with various schools in Ahmedabad and Surendranagar district in association with government of Gujarat.

About the event:

As per the notification of Government of Gujarat the teacher's day was celebrated for 5 days where different type of competitions were organized to boost the knowledge level and creativity of school students under the title of "Gyan Saptah- Knowledge Week". After meeting various school principals and Block resource Officer in education department we decided to motivate the children by awarding the winners of "Gyaan Saptah Competitions.

Selection of Banner:

Since the teacher's day is celebrated behind the name of Dr. Sarvapalli Radha Krishnan we mutually decided to have banner with his image so students can identify and relate the celebration throughout the events.

Selections of Prizes:

We had detailed discussion with School

Authorities along with Cairn India team regarding selection of prizes. At last it was decided to award educational games as a prize so awarded winner get motivated to learn the things with fun. Quality prizes were arranged to distribute No. 1, 2 and 3 of each class and competitions.

Distribution of Prizes:

All competitions were completed on 5th September-the teacher's day. Same day prize distribution was organized by school authorities. Village Sarpanch, Cooperative society members, Jeevan Amrut Committee chairman, local leaders, Retired teachers, BRC, SMC members and women leaders were present on dais and distributed the prizes. CEDRA director remained present on behalf of CEDRA and CARIN India and distributed prizes in all 4 schools under MLI.
