Introduction:

CEDRA in partnership with Cairn India is implementing the Micro level Intervention (MLI) in Cairn pipe line villages under CSR in Gujarat. In line with the target, a launching of tailoring training for girls above age group of 18 was organized in the presence of Sarpanch, some village leaders, parents and CAIRN India representative on 9th of March 2014 at 2.30 pm.. This event was celebrated under International women's week (8-14 March2015)

About the event:

CAIRN and CEDRA have successfully conducted three batches of Tailoring training in Pipaliya raj, Palasdi and Panch Dwarka villages of Wakaner block, where 72 girls were trained and presently majority of them are doing professional or semi professional stitching on their own by stitching dresses for self, family, neighbors etc with competitive rates. With such motivational outcome and local demand we planned to carry out 4th batch of tailoring training in Pratapgadh village of Wakaner block of Morbi district.

As usual this training was organized in association with gram panchayat which provided premises for free of cost. Total 24 girls have registered for the training and the figure will increase in a day or two, the inauguration done by the Sarpanch of Pratapgadh Village. He appreciated CAIRN India's efforts for social development and advised the participants to attend the training organized at their door step and would be helpful in livelihood support for economic sustainability.

The International Women's Day:

Cairn India Representative Ms. Leela addressed the participants and gave examples of good practice followed at Pipaliyaraj and Palasdi and Panch Dwarka villages for effective training output. She reminded the girls about the international women's day and its logical importance on such event. She along with CEDRA official Ms. Anju gave motivational speech towards making oneself self-reliant by learning various livelihood skill for further economic empowerment. Ms, Anju added that with professional learning and such skills women will be able to carry out economic activities and help their families towards getting good life style. Ms. Leela also said that CAIRN India is always supporting socio-economic development activities under its CSR efforts on the basis of local demand and need. People need to give their time and commitment for desired outcomes. The trainer also gave motivational speech and said that this will help women towards economic growth. Girls also interacted on various issues along with their timings and other modalities.

Training Duration:

This will a two months training. It will run between 12 - 6.00 every day except Sundays.
