

From Confused to Confident

5 Things that Every PUSD SPED Parent Must Know

If you are feeling that something is not quite right but have no idea what to do or how to “fix” a school dilemma - this talk is for you!

I am a retired school administrator, SPED teacher, and father to an amazing neurodiverse son. This is a confusing process . . . I know because I have been where you are. I now have learned a process that takes that confusion and turns it into clarity and confidence for your journey.

Let's start your journey and ways to navigate a “sometimes” murky road here:

I will cover the following topics:

- MTSS, Rtl and SST's
- The Importance of Procedural Safeguards
- Know How to Read Your IEP!
- What is an Alternative Dispute Resolution?
- When Do I lawyer UP?