

Eph 1:17-23

May [the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory] give to you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him. I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe. These are in accordance with the working of the strength of His might which He brought about in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. And He put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him as head over all things to the church, which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Ask God these questions, and journal what thoughts come to mind. Underline any that really stick out to you. Remember, God's words will align with scripture and will edify, exhort, or comfort you. "There is no condemnation for those who are in Jesus Christ" (Rom 8:1)

God, what is something specific that you want me to know about you? Will you reveal something new about yourself to me?

God, you placed Jesus far above all rule and authority and power and dominion. Is there something in my life that you want to remind me is under Jesus' control?
