Supplies: Students will furnish personal painting supplies including the porcelain piece for class. Teachers may have supplies for sale in the classroom or at their booths. The artists' supply lists will be posted on the www.FLWOCP.com website by September.

FLWOCP Members: You are encouraged to enter a piece in the WOCP Museum competition. Florida clubs will have an opportunity to display their members' creative talents on club tables for all to enjoy.

Note: Should a seminar or paint-along not take place due to unforeseen circumstances with the artist, monies paid will be returned to the prepaid attendee unless the said individual is willing to select another seminar or PAL in lieu of the original choice.

Demos: A one-hour Demo will be conducted by each artist during the 2 ½ day retreat. Cost is $5 for each demo and will be paid at the demo door. The schedule will be posted at the retreat.
