

INSIGHT INDIGENOUS

INDIGENOUS ENGAGEMENT VIRTUAL LUNCH-N-LEARNS

The only path to reconciliation runs only through the heart of Canada's truth—spoken in safety, heard with respect. Canadians must be awakened to the raw realities of Indigenous engagement, seen clearly through the uncompromising lens of First Nations truth.

COST OPTIONS & FORMAT:

- $300 - 1-hour session (max. 20 participants)
- $600 - 2-hour session (max. 20 participants)
- $500 - Registration for one participant in upcoming 25-hour online Indigenous Engagement Course + FREE 1-hour lunch & learn (max. 20 participants)

CUSTOMIZABLE TO LEADERSHIP, STAFF AND/OR FRONTLINE WORKERS

MOST REQUESTED TOPICS:

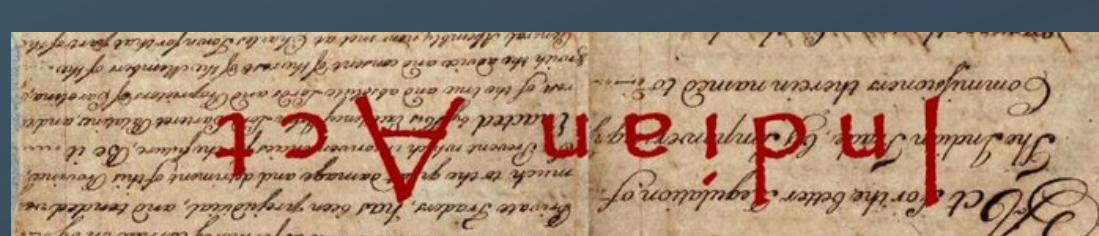

- Impacts of colonization on First Nation peoples (e.g., Indian Act, Indian Reserve System, Indian Residential School System)
- Clarification of any common misconception about Indigenous peoples (e.g., Indian residential schools, denialism, reconciliation, Indian status cards, white privilege, racism, systemic racism)
- How can I assist in truth & reconciliation with Indigenous peoples?
- Pretendianism, Indigenous identity fraud, and tokenism (e.g., National Day for Truth and Reconciliation)

WHO CAN BENEFIT?

- City hall workers (e.g., elected mayors, councillors, management, staff, front-line workers)
- Chambers of commerce, corporations, associations & government (e.g., leadership, management, staff & frontline workers)
