Committee Reports:

Squatter/Trespasser Committee: Alice Lindahl reported that new information will be available to NW drivers including addresses to watch for criminal activity. A Three Hot Spots report will be available to drivers for special attention. Alice reported that a tourism policy will be discussed at the next BOD Meeting (8-8-19). Police patrols will be low this month due to other activities on the island and a need for additional police officers. Andy and Alice will meet with police monthly to discuss Leilani Estates issues. Darryl Singleton handed out forms that could be used to document suspicious activity. These forms will be available in the drivers bag. Alice also reported on efforts to get Habitat for Humanity to come into our neighborhood to assist qualified residents with repairs to homes. A meeting will be this Friday at 4:00 P.M.

New Driver Recruitment/Training: Richard Skidmore reported 2 new drivers have been trained this month.

Block Captains Update: No report

Albizia BIIS Project: Greg reported that a training day with BIISC can be scheduled if the need exists.

Loose Dog Report: Richard Skidmore reported that there were 7 loose dogs reported and 6 were photographed this month. 1 was a first warnings, 1 was a 2nd warnings. The other dogs were reported without photos or without addresses.

Greg Armstrong attended the Puna Watch meeting along with Andy Andrews and Alice Lindahl. Squatter/Trespasser issues among other items were discussed with elected state officials. New bills will be presented this session to help with these issues. Greg also told the group about an activity called National Night Out which will be held in October and is in appreciation of police officers and the work they do.

Old Business:

None

New Business:

A gas card raffle was held and Pam Andrews was the winner.

Treasury Audit: A date needs to be set to complete this task. Ross Stadnyk, Jim Penny and Cheryl Kaupp will need to find a date to do the audit.

Richard Skidmore gave the group a tutorial on how to use the NW smart phone including how to use some of the features that are commonly used.

Richard Skidmore discussed Cert Training in Ke'eau. Leilani Estates no longer has a CERT team and this is a good opportunity start up again.

Announcements:

A list of upcoming events in Leilani Estates and surrounding neighborhoods has been made available as a handout for each person to take with them.

Next Meeting: August 27th 2019 - 7 P.M. at Leilani Community Center

The meeting adjourned at 7:55 P.M.
