

DesignMyTravel Vacations Journey Blueprint

Why Should You Work with a Travel Advisor?

- Yes, we're still here! Nowadays, we prefer to be called "Travel Advisors."
- Our approach isn't just about transactions; we focus on crafting a personalized travel experience for you.
- So, why collaborate with us on your travel plans? Here's why.

OUR CLIENTS RECEIVE

PERSONALIZED SERVICE AND CUSTOMIZED PLANNING

The trips we organize for clients are very much a team effort. Every traveler is unique (even those in the same family!), so each itinerary is customized. We take the time to understand our clients personally to discover what is truly important to them. We explore the reasons behind their vacation plans and begin crafting the perfect experience tailored to their needs.

VIP TREATMENT & ACCESS

We take pride in being affiliated with the Trevello Travel Group consortia in Canada. This affiliation allows us to establish strong connections with the most reputable travel partners globally.

Consequently, we can provide our clients with exclusive advantages and amenities such as private tours, special access for members, and enhanced upgrades.

PEACE OF MIND WHEN (AND WHERE) IT MATTERS

Your vacations represent two crucial aspects of your life: your leisure time and your available income. How you choose to utilize these two resources will positively impact all other facets of your life. Why leave it up to fate? Partnering with us guarantees you have someone dedicated to your needs; someone who genuinely cares about your satisfaction throughout the entire process. If you encounter any travel complications, weather disruptions, or lost baggage, you can relax knowing we're working diligently behind the scenes, advocating for you to resolve issues as swiftly as possible.

SAVE HOURS OF TIME RESEARCHING ONLINE

We recognize that your time is valuable and frequently constrained. Organizing a getaway shouldn't increase your stress levels or turn into just another task. With the help of our specialized network of contacts, we can quickly develop personalized options that align seamlessly with your tastes and interests.

DESTINATION INSIGHTS

It's primarily about relationships rather than merely information.

We collaborate with local experts to provide a highly personalized method for planning your trips.

For individuals in search of true, authentic experiences, working alongside a travel advisor is the best way to turn your travel aspirations into reality.

CONCIERGE SERVICES*

At DesignMyTravel Vacations, we offer concierge services aimed at elevating every part of your trip. We handle all the particulars, including securing sought-after dining reservations, supplying customized destination guides, booking pampering salon and spa appointments, and organizing exclusive private shopping excursions. Our objective is to provide a smooth and luxurious travel experience, enabling you to unwind and relish each moment without stress.

Minimum Travel Budget & Pricing

In order to maintain the utmost quality and value, we have collaborated with top-tier suppliers in the premium, luxury, and romance travel sectors to guarantee that our clients' expectations are surpassed at every stage of their journey. Your travel experience represents an investment, and our goal is to provide you with exceptional value that aligns with your requirements.

Minimum Travel Budget by Destination/Travel Experience (based on 7-night vacation)

- $6,000+ per couple for US/Mexico/Jamaica/Dominican Republic/Ocean Cruising
 - $7,500+ per couple for Rest of Caribbean/Golf Trips/Central America
 - $10,000+ per couple for Hawaii/Central and South America/Europe/River Cruises/Sporting Events
- $15,000+ per couple for African Safaris/Expedition Cruises/Maldives/South Pacific

Please note that minimum budgets are not always inclusive of airfare and based on 2 travelers.

A NOTE ON PRICING

Our objective is to secure the best value for your holiday, though not necessarily the lowest price. While pricing is crucial, it is only one of several elements we assess when creating the ideal package. We take our clients' financial constraints seriously and regard them with the same consideration we would expect for our own vacation budgets. Ultimately, we prioritize your best interests and make travel recommendations with all pertinent factors in mind. Additionally, we cannot furnish line-item pricing as your package is made up of multiple components.
