

DWAA Games

The Taylor County Sports Complex hosted the 2021 Dixie Games on Saturday, May 1, drawing athletes attempting to make the USA team for the Paralympic Games in Tokyo, Japan this summer.

The Dixie Wheelchair Athletic Association (DWAA), based in Hudson, Fla., received permission to utilize the local sports complex to hold a "seated" event for adult Paralympians seeking to make their rankings in shot-put, discus and javelin.

Paralympics who traveled to Taylor County to compete included: Mike Wishnia, Jacques Swafford and Rick Evans, as well as coach Scott Winkler.

Lennox Wiles of Perry, the son of Justin and Jade Wiles, also participated in the event and had the unique experience of learning about each of the different sporting events.

"We were so excited to finally have a place to hold our event. Taylor County Sports Complex, Greg [Mullins, Taylor County Parks and Recreation Manager], was the best," said DWAA board member Pam Navarra.

"We would like to thank the Taylor Board of County Commissioners and County Administrator LaWanda Pemberton for stepping up to the plate and making this event happen with their approval. We also want to thank the Move United Organization for their assistance with the U.S. Department of Veteran's Affairs grant sponsorship," Navarra continued.

"Due to COVID-19, our previous two venues were canceled. We are looking forward to working with all of you again next year in the hopes of continuing our 42-year history of seven sports event for Para Athletes."

added three more insurance runs to secure the regional semifinal victory, 14-5.

Knowles scored on a double by Adrianna Carter, who was driven in along with Shiver by Macy Dean, who led the team in runs batted in.

The Tigers were unable to generate any runs in the final inning, as Taylor County picked up the postseason victory over Union County and advanced to the next round by a final score of 14-5.

Adrianna Carter led the team with four hits, while Knowles, Reams, Shoaff and Hayden Durham recorded two hits each.

Dean and Shiver both had one hit in the victory against Union County.

Macy Dean led the team with four runs batted in, while Reams managed to knock three runs across home plate.

Adrianna Carter and Knowles both recorded two runs batted in while Durham and Shiver knocked in one run each.

Knowles crossed home plate three times in the Lady Bulldogs victory, while Addison Carter, Adrianna Carter, Reams and Shiver scored twice each.

Kirkland, Shoaff and Dean crossed home plate once each in the regional semifinal matchup.

With the win, Taylor advanced to the regional finals to face Branford last night (Tuesday), but results were not available by press time.

Branford won their regional semifinals matchup against Hilliard this past Thursday, 6-1.

The Lady Bulldogs defeated Branford twice during the regular season (by scores of 15-13 and 12-8) before coming up short in the district championship game two weeks ago by 9-0 final.

Results from Taylor's regional final matchup can be found in Friday's edition of the Perry News-Herald.
