Adjudicator's Comment

Ciana!!! Wow wow wow. Welcome to NYSSMA. You have nailed this solo on all levels. You have such a beautiful, consistent, and brilliant sound. Your control of your voice is quite impressive. You have supported the sound with a solid breath system. You are using the air with ease.

Your attention to diction, preparation, and stage presence are all part of this success.

I like your use of dynamics but I want to challenge you to use mp even more. With your support you will be able to sing softly but it takes practice. I challenge you to play with this part of your voice.

Your placement of your vowels is aiding in your success. Keep working on all of these aspects as you start to sing more difficult songs. You are on the road to much success. I MUST hear you as you get older and hope I have that opportunity. Thank you again for sharing your gifts.
