

United First Parish Church

Order of Service

Prelude “Lamentation” By Bob Hurd

Welcome and Opening Words Ann Gillette Parsley

Chalice Lighting Albert Vaughn
“This Morning I Pray for My Enemies” by Joy Harjo

*Covenant Ann Gillette Parsley
As a free fellowship of this historic church,
We unite to lift our hearts and open our minds to a larger reality;
To accept, support, and encourage one another;
To seek the wisdom in all religions;
To cherish and sustain the web of life;
And to strive for justice, compassion, and peace.

*Greet Your Neighbors Ann Gillette Parsley

*Hymn #389 “Gathered Here”

Message for All Ages Rev. Rebecca Froom
“Nanabozho and the Great Flood: The Anishinaabe Creation Story of Turtle Island”

*Children’s Recessional “As You Go” By John Ruben Piirainen
As you go, may joy surround you,
As you go, go in peace.
Know our love is with you always,
as you go, as you go.
(Children are invited to leave for their Spirit Circle programs)

Joys and Sorrows Ann Gillette Parsley
You are welcome to fill out a Joys and Sorrows Card before the service, or share a spoken joy or sorrow during service..

Share the Plate Offering Invitation Rev. Rebecca Froom
This Sunday’s offering will be shared with “The Massachusetts Tribe at Ponkapoag”. This week we will share half of the non-pledge contributions from our offering with The Massachusetts Tribe at Ponkapoag, the descendants of the Neponset Band of the Massachusetts Tribe, the original people who inhabited lands where our church exists today.
Donations can be placed in the offering plates or can be made online at ufpc.org. If your donation is for your pledge, please note that in the memo line, or on an envelope.

ABOUT UNITED FIRST PARISH CHURCH (UFPC)

We are a Unitarian Universalist congregation where thoughtful and caring people from many faith backgrounds gather for spiritual growth and learning, to build community, and to live our values of love and compassion in the wider world. Here you will find companions for the journey. Bring your questions, your hopes, and your ideals.

Sunday worship is at 10:30 am in-person and over zoom, followed by an in-person social hour for continued conversation. Children participate in worship and in our Spirit Circle religious education program where they learn about mindfulness, the arts, and caring for the earth.

United First Parish Church has roots in two congregations who merged in 1958: First Parish Church founded in 1639 and Wollaston Unitarian Society founded in 1888. This magnificent building was designed by Alexander Parris; it is the fourth meeting house of the Church and was completed in 1828. John Adams and John Quincy Adams, the second and sixth Presidents of the United States, were life-long members of the Church and are entombed along with their wives First Ladies Abigail Adams and Louisa Catherine Adams in the Church's crypt. The church operates a History and Visitors Program from mid-April to mid-November, giving tours of the Presidential Crypt and our historic sanctuary.

UFPC provides a home for The Prison Book Program, a social justice literacy program in residence. You can learn more about them and their meaningful work at <https://prisonbookprogram.org>.

Elected Leaders: Marie-Louise Jackson-Miller (President), Jim Petosa (Vice-President), Erwin Schaareman (Treasurer), Ryan Ruel (Clerk), Peter Kovach (Stewardship), Beverly Garcia, Heather Byrnes (Social Justice Action), Patricia Desmond (Communications), Ann Marie and Lee (Congregational Life), Dan Volpe (Religious Education), G. Frederick Shepard (Worship), Donna Ekstrand (Committee on Ministry), Susan Curran (Nominating Committee).

Staff: Rev. Rebecca Froom (Lead Minister), Rev. Dr. Sheldon Bennett (Minister Emeritus), Ann Parsley (Ministerial Intern), Nan Moore (Affiliate Lay Community Minister), Elizabeth Foster (Director of Religious Education and Family Ministry), David Bousquin (Office and Property Manager), Sean Glennon (Director of Music).
