First two weeks of June

Tuesday, June 2nd | 10:15AM

Book Walk

We'll meet at Bickerdyke Park to read "Groovy Joe: Ice cream & Dinosaurs" by Eric Litwin. There will be a craft inspired by the book and a snack. Free to all ages

Thursday, June 4th | 12:30PM

Shrinky Dink Keychains + DIY Magnets

Monday, June 8th | 10:00AM

Walk With Me

We'll meet at the library then stroll up and down Main Street. It's a great way to get active and meet new friends!

Tuesday, June 9th | 1:00PM

Kansas Wetland Education Center

Enjoy an interactive reading of "Over and Under the Wetlands", After the story, kids can explore wetland animal skulls up close, join in lively wetland-themed games, and create a special resist-art card that helps them unearth what lies beneath the marsh surface. To top it all off, everyone will have the chance to meet a live snake!

Thursday, June 11th | 12:30PM

DIY Dinosaur Habitats

Thank you to our local Sonic for donating the Sunday bowls for the Dino Habitats!

Thursday, June 18th | 5:00 to 6:00PM

Tea - Rex Party

Dress to impress or unleash your inner dinosaur with your Dino costumes! There will be games, crafts, a fun story to listen to, and refreshments. Bring some money as Suck It Up Bubble Cup truck will be outside the library from 1 to 6. They'll also be making a special Dino drink.

Story Time

Join us at 10:15

June 3rd - Dino Friends

June 10th - Hello Summer!

June 17th - Dino Sort

Mini Golf

Starting June 13th until July 18th we will have a putt putt course in the library! You can come to the front desk to receive a golf ball and club at anytime we are open. Just a heads-up: if we have a big event planned, we'll store the course away to make space for the event.

Stop by the Library!

Kick off your summer reading adventure by signing up for the Summer Library Program! When you do, you'll receive a fun-filled bag with your reading Bingo challenge, a bookmark, a free ice cream cone coupon, and other fun activities.

Don't forget to fill out your reading logs for prizes!
