A black, flared, horn-like object, possibly a speaker or a decorative piece, shown against a white background. The object has a cylindrical base that tapers into a wider, flared opening. It is positioned diagonally, with the flared end pointing towards the bottom right. The lighting creates soft shadows on the white surface beneath it.

A close-up photograph of a white dresser. The image shows the top edge and two drawers. The drawers have a simple, rectangular design with thin horizontal lines. Each drawer is equipped with a small, gold-colored knob. The dresser is set against a light-colored, textured wall.
