

Narration: Practice Activity

Directions: Identify the types of narration and fill out the chart.

Type of Narration	Definition	Key Words
1st Person
2nd Person
3rd Person: Omniscient
3rd Person: Limited

Directions: Identify the type of narration for each sentence: 1st, 2nd or 3rd Person
*No 3rd Person Limited or Omniscient

1. She likes to sing whenever she has time at home.

Type of Narration:

2. You need to stay out of trouble in the classroom.

Type of Narration:

3. I went to the park yesterday with my friend, Riley.

Type of Narration:

4. He was mean to me during class today.

Type of Narration:

5. She likes to visit the amusement park every weekend.

Type of Narration:

6. You need to stop getting so angry for no reason!

Type of Narration:

7. I like taking long walks with my family because it is a good way to exercise.

Type of Narration:

8. They were so nice to the new kid in school today.

Type of Narration:

9. He is a very good student in all of his classes.

Type of Narration:

10. Your excitement and enthusiasm is making me excited as well!

Type of Narration:

Sample Answers:

Type of Narration	Definition	Key Words
1st Person	Character is narrating the story in his/her point of view	I, me, myself
2nd Person	Spectator talking about a character	You, your
3rd Person: Omniscient	Author/Narrator talking about all the thoughts of every character	They, them, theirs, he, his, she, her
3rd Person: Limited	Author/Narrator talking about all the thoughts of one character	They, them, theirs, he, his, she, her

1. She likes to sing whenever she has time at home.

Type of Narration: 3rd Person

2. You need to stay out of trouble in the classroom.

Type of Narration: 2nd Person

3. I went to the park yesterday with my friend, Riley.

Type of Narration: 1st Person

4. He was mean to me during class today.

Type of Narration: 1st Person

5. She likes to visit the amusement park every weekend.

Type of Narration: 3rd Person

6. You need to stop getting so angry for no reason!

Type of Narration: 2nd Person

7. I like taking long walks with my family because it is a good way to exercise.

Type of Narration: 1st Person

8. They were so nice to the new kid in school today.

Type of Narration: 3rd Person

9. He is a very good student in all of his classes.

Type of Narration: 3rd Person

10. Your excitement and enthusiasm is making me excited as well!

Type of Narration: 2nd Person