

Narration: Tips

- Try to memorize the different points of view
  - Memorizing the key words used in each type of narration will be very helpful
  - It will be very helpful to know in high school when you have to do higher level analysis (like annotations)
- Always reread a small passage of the story to make sure that you are identifying it as the right narrative
  - Sometimes, people tend to speed through the story and aren't able to get the actual jist of it
- Make sure you identify the correct 3rd person
  - It is common for people to mix up 3rd person limited and 3rd person omniscient
