

Prepositions: Tips

- You DO NOT need to memorize all the prepositions!
 - People try to memorize all of them when all you need to do is to be able to identify the words that describe the subject, verb, or object of a sentence.
- In order to be as successful as possible practice identifying prepositions and prepositional phrases when you read books.
 - You will need this knowledge in order to complete higher level grammar exercises.
 - You might find this skill helpful for identifying clauses .
 - (See AMA Learning Clauses Notes for more information)
- Try to use prepositional phrases in your writing.
 - It adds a lot of variety and good quality to your stories.
