

California Native American Tribal GIS Summit 2026

Exhibitors as of 4/1/2026

| ObjectID | Lead Exhibitor - Contact's Name | Tribal/Organization              | Lead Exhibitor - Contact's Title               | Exhibit Description  |
|-----------------|--|---|---|---|
| 1               | Coach Jackson                          | Coastal Defender                        | Founder   | Indigenous Youth Guardianship   |
| 2               | Starla Madrigal                        | CA Indian Basketweavers Association     | Chairwoman  | Demonstrations on basket weaving, displays of baskets and material used for weaving, handouts on pesticides, history of CIBA and upcoming CIBA events.  |
| 3               | Brenda Caloca                          | CA Dept. of Insurance                   | Outreach Analyst                                      | California department of Insurance government resources   |
| 4               | Tracy Tober                            | CA Geographical Information Association | CGIA Chair  | California Geographic Information Association   |
| 5               | Nick Doose                             | ASM Affiliates                          | GIS Manager   | We provide Cultural Resource Management supported by GIS and drone mapping. We work with Tribal staff to document and monitor cultural resources, create practical planning tools, and deliver high-accuracy aerial data for long-term stewardship. |
| 6               | Emily Alejandrino                      | CA Dept. of Water Resources (DWR)       | Climate change specialist and tribal liaison          | Information on resources and services available for Tribes and participants in relation to GIS, mapping, data, and related tools.   |
| 7               | Fernando Ponce                         | CA Civil Rights Department              | Outreach & Education Manager                          | CRD provides information on civil rights in employment, housing, public accommodations, and state programs. Staff offer guidance on recognizing discrimination, filing complaints, and accessing resources, trainings, and community support.       |
| 8               | Sierra Graves                          | CA Energy Commission (CEC)              | Director of Tribal Affairs                            | Will have informational postcards and flyers about CEC  |
| 9               | Louis Curson-Mayorga                   | Indigenous Future Society (IFS)         | TEK GIS integration Specialist                        | IFS information Sharing and networking  |
| 10              | Jeremy Sorgen                          | Northeastern University                 | Assistant Research Professor, Northeastern University | Offering information about a research project on trespass cannabis and state funding opportunities for Tribes to remediate impacted sites.  |
| 11              | Marie Hess                             | CA Conservation Corps                   | Recruitment Coordinator                               | California Conservation Corps - Workforce Development Program   |
| 12              | Jenilyn Guzman                         | CA Dept. of Pesticide Regulation        | EJ and Equity Program Manager                         | California Department of Pesticide Regulation staff will share information about DPR's role in regulating pesticides in CA, what data the department collects, and how GIS users can access this data and available data visualization tools.       |