Dear MAAC Member,

We hope you enjoyed our February Show. Attendance was up 5% on Saturday and about 35% on Sunday over last year's show. Thank you to all of our table holders for securing guns and ammo and for many new sales items on your tables. MAAC appreciates your effort in providing attractive sales tables and the information you share with the public. I am told all the time that people like to come to our shows because of the friendly atmosphere and collecting comradery.

Thank you to the display individuals: Mr. Paul Breakey for "British Commonwealth Spigot Grenade Launching Rifles", Jim and Roberta Cassel for "Michigan Logging", Lt. Mike Kline (retired) for "St. Valentine's Day Massacre", Mr. Tracy Hill for "The Thompson Automatic Machine Gun" and the Washtenaw Chapter of Pheasants Unlimited for their special raffle. A special thanks to board member Mr. Jim Pence for filling in for John who is the assistant to the show manager John had knee surgery. Displays for the April show will be "The Spanish American War" by Larry Serdoner and "The Artifacts of Captain Robert Dye - O.S.S. Officer" by Ronald Turner.

Board Notes:

- MAAC membership expired on December 31st. Check your cards and renew ASAP.
- Purchase tables early.
- Always wear ID badges.
- Please tie all breach loading weapons and secure all loose ammo.
- No loaded weapons in the show!!
- Remove your vehicles from the show quickly after unloading.
- Table location changes must be made with Greg Zemsta in advance of the show.
- On Sunday please do not put the venue carts behind your tables.
- Show dates for 2019 at Suburban Show Place are: April 27-28, September 28-29, and November 30-December 1.
- Check www.michiganantiquearms.com for any last minute show updates.
- Helper badges are provided to club members or family members only.

As always, we thank you for attending our show, for your support and for being a member of one of the finest antique arms clubs in the mid-west. See you in April.
