Dear MAAC Member,

We hope you had an enjoyable and profitable September show. Our attendance as up slightly from the September 2017 show. We had about 300 tables sold. Many table holders indicated they had good sales with customers interested in buying. Obviously, a good sign with the economy picking up. MAAC would like to apologize for any inconvenience the delay set up caused on Friday. Management has been notified about our displeasure, but we have not received a response. At this point, we can only thank you again for your understanding concerning this matter.

Thank you to our recent display individuals: Mr. Paul Breakey for "Line Throwing Guns", Mr. Bob Whiteaker for "Manville 25mm Gas Gun, Hollywood's Myth or Legend", and Mr. Johnny Bassett for "Wells Fargo". Thank you for your great displays and continued support of Michigan Antique Arms educational endeavors.

Board Notes:

- Please continue to monitor any road construction updates.
- Check www.michiganantiquearms.com for any lastminute show updates.
- Purchase your tables early.
- Please wear ID badges at the show..
- Tie all breach loading weapons and secure all ammo.
- No loaded weapons allowed in the show!!
- Remove all vehicles from the building after unloading.
- If you want a table location change contact Greg Zemsta in advance of the show.
- We are always looking for displays. If interested contact Johnny Bassett.

Thank you for your continued support and enthusiasm. Happy Thanksgiving!!
See you in November
