BODEGAS Y VIÑEDOS LEZA GARCÍA

Bodegas y Viñedos Leza García is a family winery that produces DOCa Rioja wines from their own 140 hectares of vineyards in an altitude between 500 - 700 meters located in Najerilla Valley, an historical area in the heart of Rioja Alta. At Bodegas y Viñedos Leza García we are characterized by integral management, from the vineyard to the bottle.

VARIETY

Tempranillo.

HARVEST

First week of October.

WINEMAKING AND AGING

Fermentation time was 14 days with daily pumping over in stainless steel vats at a controlled temperature of 28°C. Barrel ageing was done in 225-litre oak casks, of which 70% were made of American wood (the rest being French wood), and it lasted for 12 months with regular racking.

TASTING FEATURES

- Color: Cherry red color with ruby red tones, clean and bright.
- Aroma: This wine has complex and intense aromas. It brings notes of good wood, where oak and fruit blend and complement each other.
- Palate: Harmonious palate with the right proportion of acidity, freshness and smoothness. Pleasant fruity aftertaste.
- Pairing: It is the ideal wine to accompany game dishes, roasts and red meats, as well as cured cheeses and sausages.
