*If you own the foreign property with cost exceeding 100,000 CAD please provide the following details:

Description of the property, related country, currency, maximum cost in the year, cost as at Dec 31, income/loss and capital gain/loss received in tax year. For property held in an account with a Canadian security dealer please provide a summary report disclosing the above mentioned information.

DISCLOSURE OF BARE TRUST ARRANGEMENTS

2023 tax rules aimed at providing more transparency on beneficial ownership of assets now require that more trusts (and estates) file tax returns. However, some of tax filing requirements were postponed for 2025.

The rules have been expanded to include cases where a trust acts as an agent for its beneficiaries, commonly known as a bare trust. In such instances, the person/entity listed as the owner of an asset is not the true beneficial owner; instead, they hold the asset on behalf of another party. If you believe that you hold the title of the asset or property on behalf of another party, please indicate whether you would like to receive further information with respect to the enhanced trust tax reporting rules.
