

Joint Election to Split Pension Income for 2022

If you are filing a paper return, you must complete, sign, and attach copies of this form to both your return and your spouse or common-law partner's return. The information on the forms must be the same. If you are filing electronically, keep this form in case we ask to see it later.

Complete this form if you (the transferring spouse or common-law partner) are electing to split your eligible pension income with your spouse or common-law partner (the receiving spouse or common-law partner) and if you meet all of the following conditions:

- You and your spouse or common-law partner were not living separate and apart from each other, because of a breakdown in your marriage or common-law relationship, at the end of the tax year and for a period of 90 days or more beginning in the tax year.
- You and your spouse or common-law partner were residents of Canada on December 31, 2022 (or on the date of death).
- You received any of the following amounts in the tax year:
  - Pension income that qualifies for the pension income amount (see line 31400 of the Federal Worksheet), including eligible veterans benefits
  - Certain qualifying amounts distributed from a retirement compensation arrangement (Box 17 of your T4A-RCA slips) and you reached 65 years of age before the end of the taxation year.

Only one joint election can be made for a tax year. If both you and your spouse or common-law partner have eligible pension income, you need to decide who will act as the transferring spouse or common-law partner electing to allocate part of their eligible pension income to the other spouse or common-law partner (the receiving spouse or common-law partner).

This form needs to be filed by your filing due date for the year. For more information on filing due dates, see the Federal Income Tax and Benefit Guide.
