President's Report

Milt texted that he had picked up the news letters and raffle letters. He left them at the club.

He asked for suggestions on how to get them stuffed and sent out. Annette and Scot McClure said they would pick them up and take care of sending them out. They did request a check for postage

Nathan Wenning texted that the concrete had been poured at the range.

He submitted a request for payment of Dunham Sports invoice.

Milt told both Scott and Nathan to speak to Dan about paying the invoice and for stamps.

There was no other activity.
