

HJW Career & Financial Literacy Institute, Inc. 2025

MISSION STATEMENT

The Hazel Joyce Wiley (“HJW”) Career & Financial Literacy Institute, Inc. is an approved Housing Counseling Agency and 501(c)(3) non-profit organization formed to increase public awareness of nonprofit activities such as financial literacy and education. The Hazel Joyce Wiley Career & Financial Institute, Incorporated exists to improve the spiritual, physical, financial and psychological well-being of women, children, families and small businesses in the local communities. It’s mission is to identify, understand and act upon the needs and lives of children, youth, single parents and families that promote family strength, youth development, and positive family growth. HJW works with small businesses to assist with general development, barrier removal and solvency. HJW accomplishes its mission through training, outreach programs, and education.. The focus is on helping individuals build life enhancing skills which are fundamental to permanent transition from dependency to self-sufficiency. To enhance the impact, value, expansion and sustainability of small businesses within the community

2025 Program Services Offered to Individuals, Families, and Businesses

Budget/Credit &Financial Education/Homeownership Webinars/ Scholarship Planning	156
Budget/Credit &Financial Education/Homeownership/ Scholarship Planning Webinars and Community Event Participants (In person and online)	10,455
Business Development Sessions	15
Total Persons Served in 2025	10,621