

HJW Career & Financial Literacy Institute, Inc.

2020 Annual Performance Report

MISSION STATEMENT

The Hazel Joyce Wiley (HJW) Career & Financial Literacy Institute, Inc. is a HUD Approved Housing Agency and 501(c)(3) non-profit organization formed to increase public awareness of nonprofit activities such as financial literacy and education. HJW exists to improve the spiritual, physical, and psychological well-being of men, women, and children in the local communities. Its mission is to understand and act upon the needs and lives of children, youth, single mothers, and families that promote family strength, youth development, and positive family growth. HJW will accomplish its mission through training, outreach programs, community development and education. The focus is on helping individuals build life-enhancing skills, which are fundamental to permanent transition from dependency to self-sufficiency.
