Bane Welker - Entertainment Center

★ THURSDAY JUNE 23RD SHOWS AT 11 AM & 1 PM ★

JIM BOEDICKER In an age of high-tech music, it's sometimes nice to know that someone can still make music "the old fashioned way". Jim's unique finger style guitar playing appeals to a wide range of audiences. His repertoire includes many humorous songs, occasionally some trick guitar work, standards, and serious songs that can speak to and stay with his audiences. His casual style works equally well in a large concert setting or a small intimate group, and he especially enjoys performing family venues. Stop and take a listen.

RAZZAMATAZZ & JAZZ

★ THURSDAY JUNE 23RD AT 2 & 4 PM – ENTERTAINMENT CENTER ★

A five-piece band featuring trumpet, piano, clarinet, tuba, and drums. They sound like a larger ensemble due to the ability of the clarinet player to also play sax and the tuba player to double on guitar. Their show consists mostly of familiar up-tempo tunes, along with a few ballads and novelty numbers. The styles of music they perform include Dixieland, ragtime, big band and swing. Their energetic performance brings a spirit of celebration to any festivity. Their musical impersonations will put a smile on your face and their brisk rhythms will start your toes a tappin'

★ FRIDAY JUNE 24TH AT 2 & 4 PM - ENTERTAINMENT CENTER ★

Saline Fiddlers Philharmonics, America's premier youth fiddling show band from Saline, Michigan, astounds audiences every time the group takes the stage. The musicians, all from Saline High School, present an energetic and polished show that features a diverse range of music from American folk, fiddle, bluegrass, jazz, western swing and Celtic traditions. Spirited vocals and Appalachian step dancing combine with the instrumentals to create an unforgettable live performance. It won't take long, and you'll be dancin' right with them.

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Making a name for herself with gymnastic upright base skills and her multi-instrumental talents, Allison has toured the country for nearly a decade, performing in 47 states, Canada and the UK. Raised in Springfield, Ohio, she grew up knowing that music was her calling, learning thirteen instruments and writing her own music. Praised as “tremendous” in her rendition of June Carter, she has worked at top regional theater houses and touring venues performing the music closest to her heart: classic country and Rock ‘n Roll. Flanked by an All-Star band hailing from New York City, they’re set to give you a night you won’t forget. Get ready for foot stompin’ and sing along to the music you love. From Patsy to Reba, Waylon to Willie, Chuck Berry to the Grateful Dead, there is a song for everyone.
