STUDY

How many of us are here today? Let's count!

Did you know that if there were ten of us here today and we represented all the children in the world, there would be one of us who didn't know whether we would have enough food to eat or not? All around the world there are children who don't have enough to eat and drink.

When Jesus was teaching his disciples, he said to them in the gospel of Matthew chapter twenty-five verses thirty-five through forty:

35 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, 36 I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.' 37 "Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? 38 When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? 39 When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?' 40 "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

Question to Think About

What do you think Jesus was trying to teach his disciples?

Jesus has a really special place in his heart for all of the children who don't have enough to eat and who don't have clothes to wear. He wants us to have a special place in our hearts for those people too. If we have enough food and clothes, he wants us to share what we have with those who don't have enough.

Reflection

How do you think you could share what you have with children who don't have enough food to eat or clothes to wear?

---

---

---

Response

Sometimes it is hard to share what we have with other people, but Jesus asks us to do just that!

LESSON 2

Cool, Clean Water

As we learn about Peru, may our hearts hear the needs of the people. May we see with new eyes. Amen.
