Judge
Joan Harms

WDHA's judge for the WDHA Open Show and Futurity Festival is a busy woman. This coming weekend, as a USEF "R" licensed judge in the Andalusian/Lusitano and Friesian divisions, Joan Harms is judging the Midwest Baroque Horse Regional Championships in Elkhorn, WI. Mrs. Harms also holds licenses in a number of other breed organizations, including ASHA, AMHA, IBHA, POAC. She holds judging licenses for 4-H in Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin, and a Wisconsin Horse Council judging license. With over 30 years of judging experience, Mrs. Harms brings a wealth of knowledge and show management savvy to our show. This will be her second session with this show, having judged the WDHA Open Show for us about 6 years ago. We look forward to working with Mrs. Joan Harms at what she has graciously called "a lovely show".
