WDHA Gathering Banquet via Zoom

WDHA's Annual Gathering and Awards Banquet was held online Saturday evening February 6. Shelly Lehman has been the WDHA High Point Secretary for a decade now and is turning over the reins to Amanda Wilson for the 2021 competition year. I have to admit that Shelly's farewell High Point party did not disappoint, in spite of the inconvenience imposed by the covid virus epidemic.

A dozen or more people signed in to be welcomed to this year's online party by one of Shelly Lehman's signature slide shows celebrating our beautiful Arabian horses. After about 15 minutes enjoying well-chosen pictures of member horses illustrating the versatility of the breed, Shelly had everyone introduce themselves, including their involvement in WDHA. Then we played bingo. Shelly had earlier emailed each participant a sheet containing four cards; and a colorful spinning wheel chose the item to be crossed off. Instead of numbers, Shelly had supplied terms related to horses, horse care, and horse shows, terms such as "gallop" and "pasture," "brush" and "hay," and "announcer" and "sport horse." I was grateful for the running list of named terms that was posted next to the wheel, since my "unstable connection" kept dropping me and then reconnecting me to the meeting.

Drawings for bingo winners awarded free High Point nominations to Logan Wilson, Lory Kohls and Michelle Joyce.

We resumed the awards part of the party with recognition of club officers and chairmen of committees and shows. Shelly had added 7 categories to the 2020 awards list to accommodate the many virtual and online competitions that took the place of face-to-face shows. Virtual classes for halter, English, Western, and Hunt Pleasure, as well as Sport Horse in Hand, Sport Horse Under Saddle, and Dressage were well supported.

March/April 2021 Newsletter www.wdhaarabian.com

The Horse Ambassador Award was won by Swiss Mocha Mist, owned and shown by Polly Popelars.

Additional door prizes were distributed. Free High Point nominations for the 2021 year were awarded to Marie Schickowski, Polly Popelars, and Lori Kohls; and Banquet reservations for the 2022 Awards Banquet were won by Dennis Grubba and Kristin Urban.

Chat conversations punctuated the proceedings and participants were invited to stay after the presentation and "mingle."

Many thanks to Shelly Lehman, our out-going High Point Secretary, for her many years of club service and for again making the Awards "Banquet" a special event in spite of the awkward circumstances necessitated by social distancing." (In this case, our distances could be measured in tens of miles rather than feet!) As one of our attendees observed, the awards party was far more enjoyable than they had anticipated. Thank you, Shelly, from the bottoms of our hearts! Kristin Urban

Thank you to WDHA for giving me the opportunity to be the High Point Chairperson for the last 10 years. It has been exciting and a pleasure growing the program. I have always wanted the Gathering Banquet to be a celebration for "eveyone". For the club, club volunteers, club officers, year end recognitions, and high point award accomplishments no matter how small or large. I plan to assist Amanda in rolling over the High Point responsibilities as much or as little as she needs.

The Badger Show AVS

Looking for a horse show with a lot of diversity? Come to The Badger Show AVS, May 29th-30th at Jefferson County Fairgrounds in Jefferson Wisconsin. There will be adult, amateur, junior and open classes; SHIH and SHUS classes; Halter and Performance Halter classes; and All Breed classes. Is there a class you would like not on the list? You have the opportunity to add recognized or all breed classes by submitting the Option Class form which includes an entry fee. Is there a class in the class list that is close to your heart? Consider sponsoring it. We are excited to annouce our Main Ring judge will be Debby Cain 'R' from Las Vegas, Nevada and the Sport Horse judge will be Paula Briney 'r' from Chatham, II. Think about supporting your WDHA Show by volunteering "Each one of us can make a difference. Together we can make a change". Please contact me with any questions. WDHA Futurity & Maturity

WDHA has had a Futurity program since its foundation in 1963. Originally patterned after the national program, it was held with a WDHA recognized show and offered halter or conformation classes for nominated horses through their three year old year. In 1993, WDHA joined forces with the MidAmerica Arabian Breeders group to showcase both Futurity programs at a stand alone show which also offered R10 qualifying classes and was held in September at the Alliant Energy Center in Madison. WDHA had added performance Futurity classes through the horse's four year old year in 1987. So between the two groups, a full slate of halter and performance classes were offered for junior horses. MAAB had no age limits on the performance classes; so WDHA added a Maturity program to give aged horses opportunity to compete for cash awards following their junior years. The joint Futurity showcase ran for 15 years, until the facility cost compelled a change of venue. And the change in economic interest in Arabian horse breeding caused MAAB to seek a different partnership to promote its program. WDHA took its Futurity and Maturity classes, now expanded to 5 year olds in both halter and performance for the Futurity and 6 and over for performance, and offered those classes with the WDHA open show. Several years ago. WDHA also added halter classes to its Maturity program.

Because numbers of entries determine the size of the paybacks and the numbers of horses competing have remained somewhat low, the club has added a number of fundraisers with results dedicated to Futurity and maturity paybacks. Originally, there was only a raffle with donated items. Later, we added a silent auction and a 50/50 auction to the fund raising efforts.

Circumstances dictate that many horses are nominated but never compete for Futurity money. Consequently, more funds have accumulated in the Futurity account than are restricted to particular class payouts. Hence there has been added money the past several years in the Futurity classes only.

In 2021, the WDHA Futurity classes will again have $100 added to each class for which there are entries. The Maturity classes will have an additional $500 added to its payouts from Banquet fundraisers not spent on the 2020 a Virtual Futurity. The nominations and renominations for the Futurity program were due December 31, 2020; but late nominations may be made by submitting all due amounts plus a penalty fee. Maturity nominations are due August 1 of the competition year. Rules and nomination forms can be found on the club website. Questions can also be submitted to Futurity Secretary Kristin Urban at urbankristin@msn.com or call 929-863-8253.
