Partnership with Purpose

The Kansas Professional Rodeo Association will provide a vast amount of visibility to your business. KPRA is a trusted name in rodeo and works hard to team up with sponsors that represent the ideals and values of the hard working cowboy. Your sponsorship not only gives you marketing power, but your business visibility creates brand loyalty. Our sponsors provide KPRA with the opportunity to promote the sport of rodeo, support local communities, and create dynamic events throughout the region. KPRA uses its influence to increase economic development, to enhance environmental stewardship, to promote animal welfare and to support real cowboys and cowgirls. Your sponsorship will allow KPRA to continue its mission and showcase the rich tradition that is still very much alive throughout Kansas and the Midwest. KPRA recognizes the generosity of our sponsor and knows that with your support, KPRA's work is possible. We hope that you will consider a sponsorship with such a positive impact. KPRA looks forward to working with you and maintaining a mutually beneficial relationship with you and your business.
