

“RITE OF PASSAGE”

A Servant’s Heart Serving Others as He Serves You

Congratulations – You have successfully received your Fathers Blessing and Modern Day Knight Coins

Welcome to Year 3 Following the Fathers example of “Serving Others”

Instructor – Pastor Dennis Griffin

This camp is to help you with your role as a servant, not only to God but your fellow man. A servant doesn’t mean you become a door mat but rather you become a respected leader through your ability to help others through the example set for us by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Humbly serving is what this year’s Crucible is all about. Too many times we have sat back while the reliable attend to others needs. Now we are “Reliable”! We are now going to be the first to step in to serve others even though we would rather relax or participate ourselves in the activities going on around us. This Crucible should teach you how to be last in line to eat and first in line to clean up. As servant we are not doormats, contrary to that we are the narrow hallway to a relationship to Christ as He commanded us to be.

John 13: 14 states “If then, the Lord and Teacher, washed your feet, you should also strive to wash each other’s feet”. At this Crucible, allow others to see you wash their feet through service.

God bless and see you at the Crucible “A Servants Heart”
