

Welcome to the first Kraken Scuba Newsletter!

We want to keep everyone informed with these quarterly mailings of "Kraken News".

Below you will find important updates, news and activities, as well as information on upcoming events, trips, and courses.

Grand Re-Opening

Since Kraken Scuba began in June we have been working hard to makes updates around the shop, schedule more events, and develop relationship with fellow divers. To celebrate the start of this new era we will be having our grand re-opening on Saturday January 26th. Come by the shop to see all the changes and take advantage of some special deals!

Review of Summer 2018

The summer of 2018 was very busy with diving almost every weekend! We had lots of Open Water certification classes, Advanced, Rescue and a few Sunday Fun Dives! Check out the photo album on our website and Facebook. Be sure to keep your eyes out next summer to join us for more fun and adventures!

Winter News & Activities

Surface Support Series

As divers in the Northeast we all miss diving over the winter, so why not do more diving related activities and spend time with fellow divers? Starting in December, on the first Wednesday of every month we will gather at the scuba shop to get through this long surface interval together. Each month we will focus on a certain topic with a short presentation and conversation.
