

Energy Scan and Vedic Astrology Reading

Celestial Vedic healing provides a detail one hour reading of your horoscope with a PDF document. You receive information on your life path through your birth blueprint planetary configuration and the factors that affect your present and future. Through this reading you will be guided with information on the negative effects such as curses, energy blocks in relationship, finances, health, and negative karmas from past lives. We will request you to provide seven questions which you need to understand or explore. We will guide you through these questions.

In your first half hour we will discuss on all the positive and negative effects from your current planetary configuration and we will also provide you a special energetic scan, which will guide you on the present state of your energetic blocks from your life and premises where you presently live.

The second half hour we will guide you with information on the questions that you had provided to us. A Prasana scan will also be done to provide you a cosmic interpretation of your situation.

Prasana is a planetary karmic configuration with cosmic timing duration. This reading provides guidance at the deeper level and allows constructing astrological Vedic processes for determining the required balancing in the planetary configuration to bring harmony and right path in life.

In the end of this discussion, we will provide you with guideline on how you will be able to clear your past and present karmas, guidance of your present and future path and your spiritual journey.