DIRECTOR'S NOTE

WHITNEY METZ

I have learned a lot from the past two years. The importance of coming together as a community of family and friends, however, has topped that list. Together, we've faced crisis and multiple quarantines. Individually, we've faced challenges others might not know about.

The SpongeBob Musical is so sweet and relatable to the things we've experienced in the last two years and teaches excellent lessons on how to come together during uncertain times. SpongeBob teaches us that it's okay to feel sorrow and fear, that doesn't diminish bravery. Sandy teaches us that our self-worth is incredible despite the discrimination we receive from others, and that even if we don't feel we fit in, there are those that want us, lungs and all!

Patrick shows us the importance of friendship. Mr. Krabs and Pearl show the importance of listening to your family. Perhaps most important of all: The SpongeBob Musical is a ton of fun!

Chloe has loved this opportunity to sing and act again, and is very grateful to Cache Theatre Company for letting her be a part of this amazing cast!

Venmo: @larkspur

Jenn is thrilled to be back for her fourth production with CTC. To her, CTC just feels like family! In this musical Jenn is living out another life long dream of being in a play with her kids. Jenn's previous roles include: Mrs. Wormwood in Matilda, Brooke Wyndham in Legally Blonde, and a Laker Girl in Spamalot. Jenn wants to give a shout out to CTC and the director for making the entire cast feel loved and cared for! She also wants to thank her husband, who is her biggest fan!

Krissa became fascinated with theatre after she watched her mom on stage as Mrs. Wormwood during Matilda. She loved seeing the kids on stage and asked her dad to take her every night! After the show, she told her mom she wanted to be in a play, but was scared and said she "wanted to be the person on the stage the least." She participated in CTC's kids production of Moana Jr. & loved being a part of it! It helped her build courage so that when this opportunity to be in The SpongeBob Musical presented itself, she was ready! Krissa loves dogs, playing with friends, and video games.

Lily Schmidt

Lily is the most artistic child in her family, and maybe the whole world. She participates in an art camp at the Eccles in the summer and spends her free time, drawing, painting, crafting, and writing books. Lily loves to dance and express herself and she was excited for the chance to be in this play. When she found out it was on the big stage at the Ellen Eccles she was a bit nervous, but the excitement quickly overshadowed the fear! Lily loves making new friends, and playing with her little brother DJ.

Who's ready for this show?! I can't heeaaaaarrrr yyyoooouuu! Working on this show has been super spicy for Ethan, especially when he was told he would be a flier for one of the lifts. What a great way to start his theatre experience in the Cache Valley! Originally from the Twin Falls, ID area, Ethan decided to come down to Utah State University to study Acting and Chemistry, which keeps him pretty busy, but he really loves it. Some of Ethan's spiciest roles include Shrek in Shrek the Musical, Lumiere in Beauty and the Beast, and Marius in Les Misérables, but planning on pursuing theatre for a long while more, he hopes the spice is far from over. Adding this experience to his resume is basically a capstone on his acting career, so... Thank you so much for coming, enjoy the show!!!

SENECA STAGQ

This is Senn's first musical theatre production, and they are so excited to be a part of this amazing cast. They have been a member of Green Canyon colorguard for the past two years, and love the thrill of performing with their team. They've played the cello for seven years, string bass for four, and have been singing since auditions in January. They are so excited to perform on the Eccles stage as a teen fan/sardine.

KATHERINE NEWMAN

Thank you to Cache Theatre for another opportunity to work with such great people. Thanks to my roommates for keeping my dogs alive while I was gone. My apologies to the cast for all the blood, sweat and tears.

Zach is extremely grateful for the opportunity he has had to work with such incredible people in both the cast and crew. Music has always been a passion of his and to see each and every cast member excel has been a dream come true!

ZACH BROWN

Cyndi FORD

Cyndi is thrilled for the opportunity to stage manage another show for CTC under the direction of Whitney! This time she is lucky enough to also watch each of her 4 kids shine onstage and have Ella as her right hand ninja! She could not be more proud of this production team and has enjoyed working and learning from each member. None of this would've been possible for her without the most amazingly supportive husband who Cyndi is eternally grateful for! Cyndi also wants to give a shoutout to her parents who taught her young the joys of working backstage!

Ella is super excited to get to work on another show with Cache Theatre Company as Assistant Stage Manager and getting to work with friends. After helping with Legally Blonde and seeing the dynamic between the cast and crew they fell in love with community theatre. Theatre is a big part of their life and they're super grateful to work on another fun musical with this amazing cast and crew!

TREVOR N. TEUSCHER

Trevor feels extremely fortunate to be able to work with some great musicians in support of this fine cast.

He grew up in Logan, and has spent the majority of his life in Cache Valley. He Holds degrees in music education and music composition from Utah State University and Illinois State University. In addition, he received training in band instrument repair in Minnesota, and has worked in the musical instrument repair field for over 25 years.
