Journey into the World of the Avalon
Lady of Avalon Goddess Tour
Summer in Glastonbury, England

What will you be doing in England?

During our journey, we enjoy a private inner stone circle experience at Stonehenge and visit the vast ceremonial landscape of Avebury Stone Circle, the ancient chambered tomb of West Kennet Long Barrow, and the mysterious prehistoric mound of Silbury Hill.

In Glastonbury, we climb the Tor, walk, pray, and meditate in the Chalice Well and Peace Gardens, sing, pray, or meditate within the sacred waters of the White Spring, and spend an evening at the Glastonbury Goddess Temple for a meditation and talk devoted to meeting the Lady of Avalon. Two free days offer time to explore Glastonbury and the surrounding area at your own pace.

Along the rugged Cornish coast, we visit Tintagel, traditionally known as the birthplace of King Arthur and the location of Merlin's Cave, with an optional stop at the Museum of Witchcraft and Magic in Boscastle. We also journey to St. Nectan's Glen for a long woodland walk beside the River Trevillet, leading to its magnificent sixty-foot waterfall, where we commune with the faery realm and the living spirit of the land.

In the historic city of Bath, we explore the Roman Baths Museum, where steaming thermal waters, ancient temple ruins, sacred offerings, and the enduring presence of the Goddess Sulis Minerva reveal the city's Roman and Celtic past. We enjoy lunch in the elegant neoclassical Pump Room before swimming in the open-air Cross Bath during a private catered gathering with delightful desserts, fresh fruit, cheeses, and champagne or juice.

Telephones and Cell Phone Service

Important to contact your cell phone provider to make sure they set you up on an International, phone, text and data service! Turn Roaming Feature on!

Telephone dialing code out of the UK is: OO followed by the country area code of where you are dialing.

If you are using your own cell phone just dial as you normally would in your own country. If you are making a call from your cell phone to a U.K. number hold down the 0 to get the + symbol, then 44 followed by the number. If someone gives you a phone number from the U.K. that starts with a 0 drop the zero.

Example: CJW Taxis from a U.K. number is 01458 833106. If you are dialing from your cell phone do it this way. +44 1458 833106. I know it is confusing, but you will get use to it. Remember to get the + symbol, you just need to hold down the 0 (zero) on your cell phone till it pops up automatically then dial the rest of your number.

There are many free ways to make calls internationally now from your cell phone. Try some of the phone apps. I use WhatsApp, Skype, Facetime, Magic Jack, Facebook Messenger, Signal, etc, for international calls as this is much less expensive for you.

Texting and Video

Go text and video crazy with Tik Tok, Facebook, X, Instagram, or normal texting that goes with your cell phone service. Share with your friends the fun you are having.

Wi-fi connection

You will have Wi-fi access in your apartment. Check with your cell phone provider for roaming data and prices. Get a package for traveling internationally before you leave for England.

The library and restaurants have Wi-fi too.

Walking and Footwear

Gradients for the tour, marked on each venue – see below:

- 1-Easy
- 2-Slight incline
- 3-Slight difficulty
- 4-Difficult
- 5-Steep and difficult

Good sturdy footwear required for all walks. Comfortable shoes recommended for the visit to Bath.

Weather in England in Summer!

What to wear!

The weather in England has been changeable but sunny so best to be prepared. Warm days maybe mixed with some rain. Dress in layers. Have a sturdy footwear. Suggested one pair of hiking shoes and one pair of athletic shoes. Bring your swimsuit for our trip to the Cross Bath!

Take a collapsible umbrella, rain slicker and sweater no matter when you go. Britain an island country and the surrounding sea gives England a varied climate. We never know what the weather will be like from one day to the other. It can be sunny one day and rainy the next. As we have such a variable climate changing from day to day, it is difficult to predict the weather.

The overall climate in England is called temperate maritime. This means that it is mild with temperatures not much lower than 0°C or 32° F in winter and not much higher than 30°C or 86 °F in summer. It also means that it is damp and is subject to frequent changes.

The Sun and Moon

Sunrise is at 06:14 a.m. and sunset is at 7:48 p.m. approx.

For Glastonbury, England, from September 1 through September 8, 2026, the lunar timing should be read in UK local time, which is BST, UTC+1.

The Moon enters Taurus on September 1, 2026, at approximately 8:01 AM BST, and remains in Taurus through September 2 and into the morning of September 3. This brings a grounded, earthy, Venusian quality to the opening days of the journey, which feels especially fitting for Glastonbury's landscape, sacred springs, and body-based pilgrimage energy.

The Moon enters Gemini on September 3, 2026, at approximately 11:47 AM BST. This shifts the tone into movement, conversation, learning, travel, and exchange. By September 4, the Moon reaches the Third Quarter phase at approximately 8:51 AM BST, marking the turning point into the waning cycle.

The Moon then moves into Cancer around September 5, bringing a softer, more inward, emotional, and intuitive quality. This is especially resonant for Glastonbury's Avalon energy, with its associations of water, memory, healing, ancestry, and the sacred feminine.

Around September 7, the Moon moves into Leo, shifting the energy outward again into expression, creativity, confidence, and visibility as the journey approaches its close on September 8.

The New Moon occurs later, on September 11, 2026, at approximately 4:26 AM BST. During September 1–8, there will still be visible moonlight, especially later at night and into the early morning hours. Even so, anyone walking to the Tor in the evening should bring a torch, as the paths are unlit and uneven, and visibility can change quickly with cloud cover.

Shopping in Glastonbury

Shopping in Glastonbury is like something out of a Harry Potter film. Think Diagon Alley. Crystals, wands and spells, gorgeous Goddessy things and lovely Goddess clothes and great candles. Fairy wings and masks are a must!

Glastonbury is not too practical on the everyday stuff unless you are a practicing witch or Priestess.

A village called Street is about a mile away and has a retail outlet and is great for discounted clothes.

You will have also an opportunity to shop in Bath, the crown jewel of England. Likely, you will find little things to buy on your free days in Glastonbury and the various cities we visit.

Banks, ATM's and Currency

What kind of currency should I use in England?

Answer: The Sterling British Pound.

When we go to England make sure you have both pounds in cash and at least two debit or credit cards, possibly multiple cards, to protect you from loss, theft, or mistakes with your account's. Never travel without some cash and cards.

Make sure your banks know you will be in England and what days you are traveling. This will ensure they will allow funds to be released while you are travelling through that country.

Banks are much more careful with international transactions due to theft. Many banks block financial transactions from other countries to protect you and your assets. Bring your bank's phone number with you!

Order your currency in advance from your local bank or visit a currency exchange center in your state. Exchange centers are also available at most airports but make sure you to get your money in-advance, so you aren't rushing around at the last minute, only to find the currency exchange kiosk is closed or out of the British Pound. It can happen.

What if I need more cash later?

You can also get cash from ATM machines in England

Glastonbury ATM and Banks: There are only one or two ATM machines near your apartment. Morrison's Supermarket has a ATM machine. ATM machines do charge a fee. Your banks will likely also charge you a fee as well. It is cheaper to use your cash for purchases and pay only one fee. It is a good idea to keep cash on hand in any situation.

PLEASE make sure you are prepared with some cash before you go to the airport. All restaurants and shops take cash, credit and debit cards.

Tipping

Tipping is appreciated in the United Kingdom but is not compulsory. For taxis, round up the fare or tip approximately 10%. In restaurants, a tip of 10–12.5% is customary for good table service unless a service charge has already been added to the bill. For a private driver, approximately 10% of the fee or a group gratuity presented at the end of the journey is appropriate.

The Tor is a symbol of the Mother and is our first stop. It is a place where the veil is thin between the worlds. It was an Islet for centuries, as the floodwaters took a long time to recede. In ancient times, it was called the Island of Glass and connected to the mainland by only a narrow strip of land at low tide called Ponter's Ball.

The Tor, St. Michael's Tower

The Tor is an axis point where many energetic ley lines cross. Legend says, it is considered a soul portal, a place for spirits to transition between the worlds, a powerful vortex of natural and spiritual power. The clearest map indicated 57 major alignments radiate from or pass through the Glastonbury Tor.

There are two key ley lines identified as the Michael Line – associated with solar, masculine active energy. The Mary Line – associated with the lunar, feminine, receptive energy. Together they form the Michael-Mary current, sweeping across southern England and meeting around the Tor, Chalice Well, and the Glastonbury landscape.

A third alignment identified by modern dowsers is called the Walsingham Line – described as additional smaller currents.

It is called the world center and believed to have an opening within it believed to be an earthly paradise. This is considered a very sacred Goddess site and a powerful spirit place. The site is associated with the Goddess, Fairies, Nature Spirits, King Arthur, and ETs.

Chalice Well: (Gradient Level 1-3) 12:00 noon We visit the Chalice Well is one of Britain's most ancient wells, nestled between The Tor and Chalice Hill.

Glamourgan will lead you through the beautiful gardens and orchards. A living sanctuary, Goddesses can experience the quiet healing of this sacred place. For over 2,000 years people have gathered from around the world to drink the water to find solace, peace, and inspiration. You may collect Chalice water to drink or for your spiritual bathing practice. Visit the gift shop and make sure all purchases are complete by 1:20 p.m.

use the sacred well house for prayer, song, and meditation.

The interior of the reservoirs is dimly lit with a series of shrines to the female and male deities such as the Lady of Avalon, Goddess Bhride (Brigit), and the Stag. Inside the white springs is a large sacred pool and just above the waters is a wall that is believed to be an entry to the otherworld. Its waters are believed to provide healing and help release energy blocks that keep us from expressing our true selves. Spiritual Bathing is practiced here to anyone who wishes to participate. Nudity/clothed are both possible.

Stop by the Goddess Temple on the way back. It closes at 4:00 pm

Free Time: Rest! Stay at the Chalice Well, or White Springs, go back to the Tor, or explore Glastonbury.

Opening hours: Summer Hours (when clocks go forward): 09:30 - 17:30 (Mon - Sun). Winter Hours (when clocks go back): 09:30 - 17:00 (Mon - Sun)

At 2:15 p.m. we travel to the West Kennet Long Barrow. This is a 10 min drive to this next location.

West Kennet Long Barrow: (Gradient Level 2-3) We will walk to the Long Barrow at 3:00 p.m. This mound is one of many prehistoric monuments that are part of the Avebury complex of Neolithic sites. It is one of the most impressive and well-preserved burial chambers in Britain. It lines ups with the rising sun on the summer solstice.

Folklore and Legend: The mound is traditionally visited by a white spectral figure accompanied by a white red-eared hound at sunrise on midsummer's day. There is a slim possibility that this tradition is a folk memory of a ritual event or at least a time thought to have been significant in the use of the barrow. We leave the Long Barrow at 5:00 p.m.

Silbury Hill: (Gradient Level 1) Across the road we make a “quick stop” for 10 min. at 5:10 p.m. to this pyramid shaped hill is about 130 feet high mound of chalk. More than 4,000 years old it is considered the largest man-made object in prehistoric Europe.

Silbury Hill is one of England's mysterious ancient and religious landscapes. Legend says that the hill hid a gold statue in its center.

Silbury Hill

Wiltshire Horses: 15-minute picture stop

The Wiltshire White Horses are enormous horse figures cut into the chalk hillsides of Wiltshire. From a distance, the exposed white chalk creates the appearance of a brilliant white horse against the green countryside. Wiltshire historically had at least thirteen white-horse figures, although only about eight remain clearly visible today. Most of the surviving horses were created during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, often near ancient hillforts and prehistoric landscapes.

During this brief scenic stop, the coach will pull into a suitable viewpoint so everyone can step out, admire one of the hillside horses, and take photographs. This will be a picture stop only, with no walk up to the horse.

The Hackpen Hill White Horse is closest to the Red Lion Pub at Avebury. . It is only about four to five miles from Avebury and is viewed from the A361 between Avebury and Swindon, making it a practical scenic stop from the Red Lion Pub.

We arrive at the Castle at 10:30 a.m. We will take a Land Rover to the Visitor Center. Once you are given tickets you can proceed to the Castle Ruins and Merlin Cave. Visiting time is 2-hours.

The castle sits high on the rugged North Cornwall Coast. You will see it's fascinating ruins and gorgeous coast. Legend says this is the birthplace of King Arthur and you can see the nearby Merlin's Cave at low tide.

Tintagel is one of the most popular attractions in the UK. The castle has a long association with legends related to King Arthur. This began in the twelfth century when Geoffrey of Monmouth described Tintagel as the place of Arthur's conception in his fictionalized account of British history, the Historia Regum Britanniae.

Geoffrey told the story that Arthur's father, King Uther Pendragon, was disguised by Merlin's sorcery to look like Gorlois, Duke of Cornwall, the husband of Igraine, Arthur's mother.

Visitors to Tintagel Castle can now see the sleeping face of Merlin, one of the most important characters in Arthurian legend, carved into the rocks on the beach

We will depart from the Tintagel Visitor Center at 12:15 p.m. and ride the Land Rover back to the entrance and walk to the car park for our next stop. Everyone must be in the King Arthurs Coach by 12:30 p.m.

St. Nectan's Glen Rocky Valley and Waterfall: (Gradient Level 1-5)

Arrive at St. Nectan's Glen at 2:30 p.m. Walk through the tea gardens and see this 60-ft. waterfall reputed to be in the top ten of the most spiritual sites in the country. Address: Trethevy, Tintagel PL34 0BG, UK

St. Nectan was a hermit who gave his name to the glen and waterfall. Although, according to some sources the name is a Christianized form of the Cornish water god - Nectan.

The keive, was seen as a potent Pagan symbol of Gaia and has been a place of reverence since before Christ. St. Nectan was said to have lived here and reputedly lies buried under the stones of the basin.

Comfortable Walking Shoe – Bring Your Swimsuit
Gradient Level Today: 1-2

Journey to the City of Bath: Goddesses will meet at in front of our apartment at 8:00 a.m. and travel to Bath by coach. Bath is a city in the ceremonial county of Somerset. We will arrive at 9:30 a.m. Bath Abbey, Address: Bath BA1 1LT, UK

The Roman Bath Museum: (Gradient Level 1-2) Enter the Museum at 10:00 a.m. for a self-guided tour. Romans built baths and a temple on the surrounding hills of Bath in the valley of the River Avon around hot springs, which are the only naturally occurring ones in the UK.

Roman Baths

A private ceremony and private bath at the spa will be arranged to honor the Goddess Minerva and Spiritual Bathing. The four key features are: The Sacred Spring, The Roman Temple, The Roman Bath House and the Museum. It is one of the 7 Natural Wonders of the West Country. An audio guide is available.

Goddess Sulis Minerva

The gilt bronze head of the Goddess Sulis Minerva is one of the best-known objects from Roman Britain. Its discovery in 1727 was an early indication that the Roman site at Bath was not a typical settlement. Gilt bronze sculptures are rare finds from Roman Britain as only two other fragments are known.

The head is probably from the cult statue of the deity which would have stood within her Temple beside the Sacred Spring. From there she may have looked out across the Temple courtyard to the site of the great altar, the site of sacrifice, which stood at the heart of that sacred space. The statue may well be an original object from the foundation of the site in the later first century AD, which means that it was probably well over three hundred years old when it met its demise.

Grand Pump Room

Lunch at the Pump Room: Reservations have been made for 12:00 noon. The Pump Room is regarded as the social heart of Bath for more than two centuries, the Pump Room is a striking neo-classical salon where hot Spa water is drawn for drinking. The Pump Room is very elegant and sophisticated for fine dining.

The Grand Pump Room in the Abbey Church Yard, Bath, Somerset, England is a historic building.

The main block, built of Bath stone, was begun in 1789 by Thomas Baldwin. He resigned in 1791 and John Palmer continued the scheme from 1793. It was finally finished in 1799. The facade of the building features Corinthian half columns, perhaps an influence from the Temple at Bassae.

Situated next to main street entrance to the Roman Baths, visitors can sample the waters from the warm spring which fills the Roman Baths. The restaurant, is popular to sample the afternoon tea and freshly prepared meals. Music in the restaurant is provided by the Pump Room Trio—the longest established resident ensemble in Europe or by a pianist.

Cross Bath

We will walk to the Cross Bath at 1:45 p.m. and enter the Cross Bath at 2:00 p.m. We have reserved the Cross Bath for 1.5 hours. The Cross Bath is an intimate open-air thermal bath with its own changing facilities. The Cross Bath is a separate building and provides an alternative to the more extensive spa facilities in the New Royal Bath.

Where the Cross Bath now stands, the Celts revered their Goddess Sulis, in whose honor the Romans named their spa town, Aquae Sulis. The Cross Spring is now recognized as an official sacred site. As you relax in the oval Cross Bath, you can watch the natural thermal waters cascade from a specially commissioned poolside fountain. The Cross Bath provides an opportunity to experience Bath's natural thermal waters in a very special setting.

As the Cross Bath is a historic, stand-alone building separate from the main spa, it does not have the facilities to offer spa treatments. We have this private Thermal pool for 1 ½ hours to soak away the aches and pains of walking. Here we will honour with ceremony the Goddess Sulis Minvera.

Next we have the options: to watch square performances, visit Sally Lunn's Bunns or The Mad Hatter's Tea Party Coffee Shop. Likely we will be too full to eat again.

Sally Lunn's Bunns:

Coffee and Sally Lunn's Bunns: Sally Lunn's is much more than a world-famous tea and eating house in the center of the wonderful city of Bath England. Their historic building is one of the oldest houses in Bath. Their kitchen museum shows the actual kitchen used by the legendary young Huguenot baker Sally Lunn in Georgian Bath to create the first Bath bunn – an authentic regional speciality now known the world over.

Heal Stone:

Traditionally, the Heel Stone marks the place on the horizon where the summer solstice sunrise appears when viewed from the center of the stone circle. Every year thousands of people gather to watch this event.

4,500 years ago, the sunrise would have appeared about 1° to the left of that shown in the picture below. The change in the angle of the Earth's axial tilt since 2,500 BC (from $\sim 24^\circ$ to $\sim 23.5^\circ$) has shifted sunrise to the right by approx. two diameters of the Sun. However, the modern situation is made worse by the trees in the far distance on military land at Larkhill, which displace the sunrise even further to the right.

A curious effect occurs immediately after sunrise on the summer solstice. The shadow cast by the Heel Stone as the Sun passes behind it reaches up and into the central stone circle through the gap between Stones 30 and 1 (the main entrance way). The photo below shows the shadow of the Heel Stone about 10 minutes after sunrise when its shadow has tracked a little way to the right.

Some researchers have suggested that the round stone circle represents the divine feminine and the pointed Heel Stone the divine masculine and that the shadow symbolizes the ceremonial fertilization of the Earth Mother by the Sky Father at the height of his power on the longest day.

Other researchers have suggested that the name Heel Stone comes from the Anglo-Saxon word "Helan", which means "to conceal". Certainly, the Sun would indeed be partially concealed by the tip of the Heel Stone immediately after sunrise were it not for those trees on Larkhill horizon.

The alignment from beside the Heel Stone looking back towards the stone circle is to the winter solstice sunset. On the shortest day the Sun appears to set into the center of the circle, and 4,500 years ago this would have been directly between the uprights of the (then still standing) Great Trilithon.

Current thinking is that the winter sunset was more important to the builders of Stonehenge than the summer sunrise. Culturally it seems to make more sense to celebrate the turning point of the Sun at the depths of winter, promising a return of warmth and the beginning of a new cycle.

Passengers embarking upon a journey involving an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that the provisions of an international treaty (the Warsaw Convention, the 1999 Montreal Convention, or other treaty), as well as a carrier's own contract of carriage or tariff provisions, may be applicable to their entire journey, including any portion entirely within the countries of departure and destination. The applicable treaty governs and may limit the liability of carriers to passengers for death or personal injury, destruction or loss of, or damage to, baggage, and for delay of passengers and baggage.

Additional protection can usually be obtained by purchasing insurance from a private company. Such insurance is not affected by any limitation of the carrier's liability under an international treaty. For further information please consult your airline or insurance company representative.

Tintagel Castle

Your ticket states the time when you can enter the castle and cross the bridge. Once on the island, you can explore at your leisure and are welcome to stay for as long as you like, until our closing time.

There are several car parks in Tintagel Village. Plan in plenty of time to walk to the castle from the village (at least 10 minutes). Please note the only on-site toilets are by the shop and cafe at the bottom of the hill, a 10 minute walk from the entrance.

What you need to know about your visit to Tintagel Castle

Your ticket shows the time when you can enter the castle and cross the bridge. Once you're on the island, you can explore for as long as you like until closing time.

There are several car parks in Tintagel village. They're all at least ten minutes' walk from the castle, so leave plenty of time to arrive in time for your booking.

The toilets at Tintagel Castle are near the shop and café at the bottom of the hill, which are a 10-minute walk from the castle entrance.

Tintagel Castle

The castle is part of a rugged coastal landscape with steep slopes, sheer drops and uneven surfaces. The usual route off the island is down 140 steps to the café, beach and museum, but you can go back across the bridge to leave if you need a step-free route.

The shuttle service from the village to the castle is currently operating on a limited route and can only travel part of the way between the bottom cafe and the halfway point.

Check our website to plan your visit

We might need to close the castle in dangerous weather and high winds. Please check the website for updates before you travel.

What you need to know

Your tickets are attached to this email. We'll need to scan them when you arrive, either from your phone or a printed copy.

If you're an English Heritage member, you'll need to bring your membership card.

Check out the site's pages on our website before you visit. They're packed full of useful information about opening times, directions, car parking, catering options and accessibility.

If we have to close the site, we'll send you an email to let you know and put a note on the site's webpage. This usually only happens when the weather's very bad. If we do have to close the site on the day you've booked, you'll be automatically refunded within ten working days.

You'll need to show a valid pass if you're claiming a free ticket as a local resident or a member of an affiliated organisation.

If you bought a guidebook with your ticket, you can pick it up at the admissions desk when you arrive.

For any other questions, check out our FAQs.

We're looking forward to welcoming you.
