

his personal life and asked how she could reach him. I never gave Anne any personal information because Jim told me not to.

- 7. I told Jim's lawyer Mark Leavitt all of this information and told him I was willing and able to testify to these facts, but Mark always blew me off.
- 8. Mark was extremely uncooperative with me and seemed convinced from the very beginning that Jim was guilty.
- 9. Mark was only concerned with the death penalty phase of the trial and refused to follow up on any information related to Jim's innocence provided by myself or Jim.
- 10. Even when Jim told Mark over and over that he wanted to testify, Mark made it clear that Jim was not going to testify and tried to get me to convince Jim not to testify.
- 11. I was terrified for my son and my family. I trusted Mark to do the right thing but in hindsight it is clear that Jim had virtually no counsel at all.
- 12. I make these statements freely and voluntarily and will testify to the same at any hearing or proceeding.
