FATHER GREG’S MESSAGE
Dear Parishioners:
Labor Day, the unofficial conclusion of summer, is a Federal Holiday that calls attention to the contribution of American workers to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our nation. May God bless the fruits of our labors. Please note that the Mass on Labor Day Monday will be at 8:00 am instead of the usual 7:00 am Mass on Monday.
School began this past week, and several priests and I welcomed new and returning students at Bishop Baraga Catholic School. Our Catholic School is a treasure in our midst. I look forward to the celebration of Mass with students, families, staff, and all who support Catholic education.
The BLITZ is coming. UPCSA will be conducted in late September and early October. I am a strong believer in Catholic efforts funded by UPCSA. Please be generous.
All of our diocesan priests and I will take part in a convocation which will take place in Green Bay from September 15-18th. We will gather with Bishop John for Masses, meals, sessions and pray for the needs of our parishes and parishioners.
The Gospel passage from Luke expands the theme of humility found in Sirach. Jesus states that dinner guests not seek the place of honor at the table and that a host not invite people capable of hosting a dinner in kind. Jesus proposes that we embrace our lowliness before God and discover the truth that raises us to life.
Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Greg

Labor Day, the unofficial conclusion of summer, is a Federal Holiday that calls attention to the contribution of American workers to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our nation. May God bless the fruits of our labors. Please note that the Mass on Labor Day Monday will be at 8:00 am instead of the usual 7:00 am Mass on Monday.

School began this past week, and several priests and I welcomed new and returning students at Bishop Baraga Catholic School. Our Catholic School is a treasure in our midst. I look forward to the celebration of Mass with students, families, staff, and all who support Catholic education.

The BLITZ is coming. UPCSA will be conducted in late September and early October. I am a strong believer in Catholic efforts funded by UPCSA. Please be generous.

All of our diocesan priests and I will take part in a convocation which will take place in Green Bay from September 15-18th. We will gather with Bishop John for Masses, meals, sessions and pray for the needs of our parishes and parishioners.

The Gospel passage from Luke expands the theme of humility found in Sirach. Jesus states that dinner guests not seek the place of honor at the table and that a host not invite people capable of hosting a dinner in kind. Jesus proposes that we embrace our lowliness before God and discover the truth that raises us to life.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Greg

FATHER GREG’S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners:

Labor Day, the unofficial conclusion of summer, is a Federal Holiday that calls attention to the contribution of American workers to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our nation. May God bless the fruits of our labors. Please note that the Mass on Labor Day Monday will be at 8:00 am instead of the usual 7:00 am Mass on Monday.

School began this past week, and several priests and I welcomed new and returning students at Bishop Baraga Catholic School. Our Catholic School is a treasure in our midst. I look forward to the celebration of Mass with students, families, staff, and all who support Catholic education.

The BLITZ is coming. UPCSА will be conducted in late September and early October. I am a strong believer in Catholic efforts funded by UPCSА. Please be generous.

All of our diocesan priests and I will take part in a convocation which will take place in Green Bay from September 15-18th. We will gather with Bishop John for Masses, meals, sessions and pray for the needs of our parishes and parishioners.

The Gospel passage from Luke expands the theme of humility found in Sirach. Jesus states that dinner guests not seek the place of honor at the table and that a host not invite people capable of hosting a dinner in kind. Jesus proposes that we embrace our lowliness before God and discover the truth that raises us to life.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Greg

FATHER GREG’S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners:

Labor Day, the unofficial conclusion of summer, is a Federal Holiday that calls attention to the contribution of American workers to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our nation. May God bless the fruits of our labors. Please note that the Mass on Labor Day Monday will be at 8:00 am instead of the usual 7:00 am Mass on Monday.

School began this past week, and several priests and I welcomed new and returning students at Bishop Baraga Catholic School. Our Catholic School is a treasure in our midst. I look forward to the celebration of Mass with students, families, staff, and all who support Catholic education.

The BLITZ is coming. UPCSА will be conducted in late September and early October. I am a strong believer in Catholic efforts funded by UPCSА. Please be generous.

All of our diocesan priests and I will take part in a convocation which will take place in Green Bay from September 15-18th. We will gather with Bishop John for Masses, meals, sessions and pray for the needs of our parishes and parishioners.

The Gospel passage from Luke expands the theme of humility found in Sirach. Jesus states that dinner guests not seek the place of honor at the table and that a host not invite people capable of hosting a dinner in kind. Jesus proposes that we embrace our lowliness before God and discover the truth that raises us to life.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Greg

FATHER GREG’S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners:

Labor Day, the unofficial conclusion of summer, is a Federal Holiday that calls attention to the contribution of American workers to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our nation. May God bless the fruits of our labors. Please note that the Mass on Labor Day Monday will be at 8:00 am instead of the usual 7:00 am Mass on Monday.

School began this past week, and several priests and I welcomed new and returning students at Bishop Baraga Catholic School. Our Catholic School is a treasure in our midst. I look forward to the celebration of Mass with students, families, staff, and all who support Catholic education.

The BLITZ is coming. UPCSA will be conducted in late September and early October. I am a strong believer in Catholic efforts funded by UPCSA. Please be generous.

All of our diocesan priests and I will take part in a convocation which will take place in Green Bay from September 15-18th. We will gather with Bishop John for Masses, meals, sessions and pray for the needs of our parishes and parishioners.

The Gospel passage from Luke expands the theme of humility found in Sirach. Jesus states that dinner guests not seek the place of honor at the table and that a host not invite people capable of hosting a dinner in kind. Jesus proposes that we embrace our lowliness before God and discover the truth that raises us to life.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Greg
