Father Joe is an enduring example of a priest who visits and brings Holy Communion to parishioners who are ill, homebound, in nursing facilities, and at the hospital. Fr. Greg seeks to follow in Fr. Joe’s footsteps and visit parishioners in need. Fr. Greg currently visits and brings Holy Communion to about eight people monthly. All priests are on call to visit people with immediate needs. Fr. Greg seeks to refine efforts and visit parishioners in need on and around First Fridays of each month. We are grateful that parishioners bring Holy Communion from the Mass of the day to family members and neighbors in need. If you are aware of anyone in need of Holy Communion, please contact the parish office.

ATTENTION ALL LECTORS:

The New 2026 Workbooks for Lectors are available for pick up in the Sacristy.

Mass on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, will be at 8:00 am

Thanksgiving Prayer - Gracious God, we thank you for the blessings in our lives, including our family, friends, and the food we have to eat. We are grateful for your constant love, the strength you provide, and the peace and joy you bring each day. Thank you for your presence, and for guiding us through both good times and bad. May we always have hearts full of gratitude. In Jesus’ name we pray - Amen

Over the next couple of weeks, we will have Angel tags for each child indicating the age and if they are a boy or girl so that you may take one of these and buy an appropriate gift. There are instruction sheets on the table near the tree. Please return your gift wrapped with the Angel Tag attached to it by Sunday, December 7th.

BBCS News:

Bishop Baraga Catholic School families are eternally grateful for the support of our parishes. We are having a wonderful school year. We recently celebrated All Saints’ Day. Our students dressed as saints, attended Mass, and had a festival. What a gift to be part of the Communion of Saints!

Our Food Pantry shelves could use some replenishing – items needed: Spaghetti, Spaghetti Sauce, Soup, Pork & Beans, Tuna, Canned Fruit, and Crackers.

Father Joe is an enduring example of a priest who visits and brings Holy Communion to parishioners who are ill, homebound, in nursing facilities, and at the hospital. Fr. Greg seeks to follow in Fr. Joe's footsteps and visit parishioners in need. Fr. Greg currently visits and brings Holy Communion to about eight people monthly. All priests are on call to visit people with immediate needs. Fr. Greg seeks to refine efforts and visit parishioners in need on and around First Fridays of each month. We are grateful that parishioners bring Holy Communion from the Mass of the day to family members and neighbors in need. If you are aware of anyone in need of Holy Communion, please contact the parish office.

There are instruction sheets on the table near the tree. Please return your gift wrapped with the Angel Tag attached to it by Sunday, December 7th.

BBCS News:

Bishop Baraga Catholic School families are eternally grateful for the support of our parishes. We are having a wonderful school year. We recently celebrated All Saints' Day. Our students dressed as saints, attended Mass, and had a festival. What a gift to be part of the Communion of Saints!

Our Food Pantry shelves could use some replenishing – items needed: Spaghetti, Spaghetti Sauce, Soup, Pork & Beans, Tuna, Canned Fruit, and Crackers.

Father Joe is an enduring example of a priest who visits and brings Holy Communion to parishioners who are ill, homebound, in nursing facilities, and at the hospital. Fr. Greg seeks to follow in Fr. Joe's footsteps and visit parishioners in need. Fr. Greg currently visits and brings Holy Communion to about eight people monthly. All priests are on call to visit people with immediate needs. Fr. Greg seeks to refine efforts and visit parishioners in need on and around First Fridays of each month. We are grateful that parishioners bring Holy Communion from the Mass of the day to family members and neighbors in need. If you are aware of anyone in need of Holy Communion, please contact the parish office.

Father Joe is an enduring example of a priest who visits and brings Holy Communion to parishioners who are ill, homebound, in nursing facilities, and at the hospital. Fr. Greg seeks to follow in Fr. Joe’s footsteps and visit parishioners in need. Fr. Greg currently visits and brings Holy Communion to about eight people monthly. All priests are on call to visit people with immediate needs. Fr. Greg seeks to refine efforts and visit parishioners in need on and around First Fridays of each month. We are grateful that parishioners bring Holy Communion from the Mass of the day to family members and neighbors in need. If you are aware of anyone in need of Holy Communion, please contact the parish office.

Thanksgiving Prayer – Gracious God, we thank you for the blessings in our lives, including our family, friends, and the food we have to eat. We are grateful for your constant love, the strength you provide, and the peace and joy you bring each day. Thank you for your presence, and for guiding us through both good times and bad. May we always have hearts full of gratitude. In Jesus’ name we pray - Amen

ANGEL GIVING TREE – Each year our parish includes gifts for the children of the families that we provide food baskets to for Christmas. Our Angel Giving Tree is now up in the church vestibule. Over the next couple of weeks, we will have Angel tags for each child indicating the age and if they are a boy or girl so that you may take one of these and buy an appropriate gift. There are instruction sheets on the table near the tree. Please return your gift wrapped with the Angel Tag attached to it by Sunday, December 7th.

BBCS News:

Bishop Baraga Catholic School families are eternally grateful for the support of our parishes. We are having a wonderful school year. We recently celebrated All Saints’ Day. Our students dressed as saints, attended Mass, and had a festival. What a gift to be part of the Communion of Saints!

Our Food Pantry shelves could use some replenishing – items needed: Spaghetti, Spaghetti Sauce, Soup, Pork & Beans, Tuna, Canned Fruit, and Crackers.

Thank you for your generosity!

Father Joe is an enduring example of a priest who visits and brings Holy Communion to parishioners who are ill, homebound, in nursing facilities, and at the hospital. Fr. Greg seeks to follow in Fr. Joe’s footsteps and visit parishioners in need. Fr. Greg currently visits and brings Holy Communion to about eight people monthly. All priests are on call to visit people with immediate needs. Fr. Greg seeks to refine efforts and visit parishioners in need on and around First Fridays of each month. We are grateful that parishioners bring Holy Communion from the Mass of the day to family members and neighbors in need. If you are aware of anyone in need of Holy Communion, please contact the parish office.

ATTENTION ALL LECTORS:

The New 2026 Workbooks for Lectors are available for pick up in the Sacristy.
