Dear Parishioners: Winter Carnival was a great success, and families and children enjoyed hot dogs, games, and fellowship. Thank you to all who hosted Winter Carnival last weekend.

Ash Wednesday, February 18th, marks the beginning of the season of Lent when Catholics are marked with the sign of repentance. When ashes are imposed, we hear the words, "Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." The hallmarks of Lent are: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Masses on Ash Wednesday are 7:00 am, 4:15 pm, and 6:30 pm. Lenten spiritual growth opportunities will be announced and listed in the bulletin.

The Sermon on the Mount begins with the Beatitudes. Jesus taught a series of solid principles or attitudes that bring forth God's blessings. We know them already. Blessed are the poor in spirit...Blessed are they who mourn...These attitudes describe the life of Jesus, and the lives of all who follow Jesus. Think of the Beatitudes as a job description for holiness. Perhaps the first beatitude is most important. Said differently, Blessed are those who realize their dependence upon God every day.

May God bless our individuals and families well into 2026 - Fr. Greg

Dear Parishioners: Winter Carnival was a great success, and families and children enjoyed hot dogs, games, and fellowship. Thank you to all who hosted Winter Carnival last weekend.

Ash Wednesday, February 18th, marks the beginning of the season of Lent when Catholics are marked with the sign of repentance. When ashes are imposed, we hear the words, "Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." The hallmarks of Lent are: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Masses on Ash Wednesday are 7:00 am, 4:15 pm, and 6:30 pm. Lenten spiritual growth opportunities will be announced and listed in the bulletin.

The Sermon on the Mount begins with the Beatitudes. Jesus taught a series of solid principles or attitudes that bring forth God's blessings. We know them already. Blessed are the poor in spirit...Blessed are they who mourn...These attitudes describe the life of Jesus, and the lives of all who follow Jesus. Think of the Beatitudes as a job description for holiness. Perhaps the first beatitude is most important. Said differently, Blessed are those who realize their dependence upon God every day.

Dear Parishioners: Winter Carnival was a great success, and families and children enjoyed hot dogs, games, and fellowship. Thank you to all who hosted Winter Carnival last weekend.

Ash Wednesday, February 18th, marks the beginning of the season of Lent when Catholics are marked with the sign of repentance. When ashes are imposed, we hear the words, "Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." The hallmarks of Lent are: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Masses on Ash Wednesday are 7:00 am, 4:15 pm, and 6:30 pm. Lenten spiritual growth opportunities will be announced and listed in the bulletin.

The Sermon on the Mount begins with the Beatitudes. Jesus taught a series of solid principles or attitudes that bring forth God's blessings. We know them already. Blessed are the poor in spirit...Blessed are they who mourn...These attitudes describe the life of Jesus, and the lives of all who follow Jesus. Think of the Beatitudes as a job description for holiness. Perhaps the first beatitude is most important. Said differently, Blessed are those who realize their dependence upon God every day.

May God bless our individuals and families well into 2026 - Fr. Greg

Dear Parishioners: Winter Carnival was a great success, and families and children enjoyed hot dogs, games, and fellowship. Thank you to all who hosted Winter Carnival last weekend.

Ash Wednesday, February 18th, marks the beginning of the season of Lent when Catholics are marked with the sign of repentance. When ashes are imposed, we hear the words, "Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." The hallmarks of Lent are: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Masses on Ash Wednesday are 7:00 am, 4:15 pm, and 6:30 pm. Lenten spiritual growth opportunities will be announced and listed in the bulletin.

The Sermon on the Mount begins with the Beatitudes. Jesus taught a series of solid principles or attitudes that bring forth God's blessings. We know them already. Blessed are the poor in spirit...Blessed are they who mourn...These attitudes describe the life of Jesus, and the lives of all who follow Jesus. Think of the Beatitudes as a job description for holiness. Perhaps the first beatitude is most important. Said differently, Blessed are those who realize their dependence upon God every day.

May God bless our individuals and families well into 2026 - Fr. Greg

Dear Parishioners: Winter Carnival was a great success, and families and children enjoyed hot dogs, games, and fellowship. Thank you to all who hosted Winter Carnival last weekend.

Ash Wednesday, February 18th, marks the beginning of the season of Lent when Catholics are marked with the sign of repentance. When ashes are imposed, we hear the words, "Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." The hallmarks of Lent are: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Masses on Ash Wednesday are 7:00 am, 4:15 pm, and 6:30 pm. Lenten spiritual growth opportunities will be announced and listed in the bulletin.

The Sermon on the Mount begins with the Beatitudes. Jesus taught a series of solid principles or attitudes that bring forth God's blessings. We know them already. Blessed are the poor in spirit...Blessed are they who mourn...These attitudes describe the life of Jesus, and the lives of all who follow Jesus. Think of the Beatitudes as a job description for holiness. Perhaps the first beatitude is most important. Said differently, Blessed are those who realize their dependence upon God every day.

Dear Parishioners: Winter Carnival was a great success, and families and children enjoyed hot dogs, games, and fellowship. Thank you to all who hosted Winter Carnival last weekend.

Ash Wednesday, February 18th, marks the beginning of the season of Lent when Catholics are marked with the sign of repentance. When ashes are imposed, we hear the words, "Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." The hallmarks of Lent are: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Masses on Ash Wednesday are 7:00 am, 4:15 pm, and 6:30 pm. Lenten spiritual growth opportunities will be announced and listed in the bulletin.

The Sermon on the Mount begins with the Beatitudes. Jesus taught a series of solid principles or attitudes that bring forth God's blessings. We know them already. Blessed are the poor in spirit...Blessed are they who mourn...These attitudes describe the life of Jesus, and the lives of all who follow Jesus. Think of the Beatitudes as a job description for holiness. Perhaps the first beatitude is most important. Said differently, Blessed are those who realize their dependence upon God every day.

May God bless our individuals and families well into 2026 - Fr. Greg
