Dear Parishioners: This Sunday is the Solemnity of All Saints. Today, we honor the holy men and women of every time and place who rejoice in God's full presence in heaven. We recall timeless Saints such as Francis and Therese of the Child Jesus and meet saintly people among our own families and friends. As we follow Jesus, we are all called to be saints. Last Wednesday, our Faith Formation students decorated pumpkins to appear as their favorite Saints. Please find these pumpkins and descriptions of Saints in Church during the weekend Masses. Last Friday, our Bishop Baraga students participated in a Saints Day Festival.

The Gospel for All Saints is the Beatitudes, the beginning of the Sermon on the Mount. In eight great statements, Jesus declares - blessed the poor in spirit, the mourners, the meek, the merciful, the lowly. Each will receive the Kingdom of God expressed in many ways. They will be comforted, satisfied, shown mercy, inherit the land, and even see and become the children of God. Jesus and the beatitudes show us the way to holiness. Let us not forget that there will be some suffering for the name of Jesus. God is our strength.

Monday is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls). Remembrance and prayers for people who have died have taken place since the earliest days of the Church. Our prayers and sacrifices help the faithful departed on their way to heaven. Recall in the creed that we recite "We look to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come."

Over many years, the ringing of bells during the Eucharistic Prayer diminished, likely to call attention to the importance of the entirety of the Mass. In recent decades, the ringing of the bells has resumed and the practice remains optional. Following discussion with parishioners and parish council members, I have resumed the bells during the elevation of the Body of Christ and elevation of the Blood of Christ to help us focus on the mystery when the bread and wine become the body and blood of Jesus.

Fireside Chat is being held this Sunday, November 1st at 6:30 pm. Youth Encounter for students, ages 14-18 will take place at Immaculate Conception Parish from November 6-8th. Please register today.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Greg
