Dear Parishioners:

This Sunday, the Gospel tells us of John the Baptist, one of the primary figures of Advent. John, a memorial figure, came preaching fire and brimstone. “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand,” says John. He reminds us of the urgency of Advent, and changes in life to which the season calls us. In what ways are we waiting and preparing for the coming of Jesus?

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a Holy Day, will be celebrated on Monday, December 8, 2025. Catholics believe that Mary, from the first moment of her conception, was preserved from original sin. Mary is honored as a model for all humanity in her holiness, purity, and openness to accept God’s plan for her. Mass on Monday, December 8th will be at 7:00 am & 6:30 pm.

This Sunday, please find your envelope on the tables in the entrance of Church with a Christmas 2025 message and Christmas/New Year Mass schedule. Our hope is that the schedule is helpful when planning ahead. May we enter deeply into the Advent season, and celebrate with great joy the birth of Jesus among us.

SATURDAY	3:30 – 4:00 pm – Confessions
SUNDAY	Christmas Card Coloring Social after the 8:00 am & 10:15 am Masses

Dear Parishioners:

This Sunday, the Gospel tells us of John the Baptist, one of the primary figures of Advent. John, a memorial figure, came preaching fire and brimstone. “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand,” says John. He reminds us of the urgency of Advent, and changes in life to which the season calls us. In what ways are we waiting and preparing for the coming of Jesus?

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a Holy Day, will be celebrated on Monday, December 8, 2025. Catholics believe that Mary, from the first moment of her conception, was preserved from original sin. Mary is honored as a model for all humanity in her holiness, purity, and openness to accept God’s plan for her. Mass on Monday, December 8th will be at 7:00 am & 6:30 pm.

This Sunday, please find your envelope on the tables in the entrance of Church with a Christmas 2025 message and Christmas/New Year Mass schedule. Our hope is that the schedule is helpful when planning ahead. May we enter deeply into the Advent season, and celebrate with great joy the birth of Jesus among us.

Sincerely in Christ – Fr. Greg

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we welcome Graham Michael Berndt, son of Elina & Chris.

May his life be blessed with spiritual guidance through his journey with the Lord Jesus Christ

SUNDAY	Christmas Card Coloring Social after the 8:00 am & 10:15 am Masses

Dear Parishioners:

This Sunday, the Gospel tells us of John the Baptist, one of the primary figures of Advent. John, a memorial figure, came preaching fire and brimstone. “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand,” says John. He reminds us of the urgency of Advent, and changes in life to which the season calls us. In what ways are we waiting and preparing for the coming of Jesus?

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a Holy Day, will be celebrated on Monday, December 8, 2025. Catholics believe that Mary, from the first moment of her conception, was preserved from original sin. Mary is honored as a model for all humanity in her holiness, purity, and openness to accept God's plan for her. Mass on Monday, December 8th will be at 7:00 am & 6:30 pm.

This Sunday, please find your envelope on the tables in the entrance of Church with a Christmas 2025 message and Christmas/New Year Mass schedule. Our hope is that the schedule is helpful when planning ahead. May we enter deeply into the Advent season, and celebrate with great joy the birth of Jesus among us.

Sincerely in Christ – Fr. Greg

SUNDAY	Christmas Card Coloring Social after the 8:00 am & 10:15 am Masses

Dear Parishioners:

This Sunday, the Gospel tells us of John the Baptist, one of the primary figures of Advent. John, a memorial figure, came preaching fire and brimstone. “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand,” says John. He reminds us of the urgency of Advent, and changes in life to which the season calls us. In what ways are we waiting and preparing for the coming of Jesus?

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a Holy Day, will be celebrated on Monday, December 8, 2025. Catholics believe that Mary, from the first moment of her conception, was preserved from original sin. Mary is honored as a model for all humanity in her holiness, purity, and openness to accept God's plan for her. Mass on Monday, December 8th will be at 7:00 am & 6:30 pm.

This Sunday, please find your envelope on the tables in the entrance of Church with a Christmas 2025 message and Christmas/New Year Mass schedule. Our hope is that the schedule is helpful when planning ahead. May we enter deeply into the Advent season, and celebrate with great joy the birth of Jesus among us.

Sincerely in Christ – Fr. Greg

SATURDAY	3:30 – 4:00 pm – Confessions
SUNDAY	Christmas Card Coloring Social after the 8:00 am & 10:15 am Masses

Dear Parishioners:

This Sunday, the Gospel tells us of John the Baptist, one of the primary figures of Advent. John, a memorial figure, came preaching fire and brimstone. “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand,” says John. He reminds us of the urgency of Advent, and changes in life to which the season calls us. In what ways are we waiting and preparing for the coming of Jesus?

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a Holy Day, will be celebrated on Monday, December 8, 2025. Catholics believe that Mary, from the first moment of her conception, was preserved from original sin. Mary is honored as a model for all humanity in her holiness, purity, and openness to accept God’s plan for her. Mass on Monday, December 8th will be at 7:00 am & 6:30 pm.

This Sunday, please find your envelope on the tables in the entrance of Church with a Christmas 2025 message and Christmas/New Year Mass schedule. Our hope is that the schedule is helpful when planning ahead. May we enter deeply into the Advent season, and celebrate with great joy the birth of Jesus among us.

Sincerely in Christ – Fr. Greg

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we welcome Graham Michael Berndt, son of Elina & Chris.

May his life be blessed with spiritual guidance through his journey with the Lord Jesus Christ

Dear Parishioners:

This Sunday, the Gospel tells us of John the Baptist, one of the primary figures of Advent. John, a memorial figure, came preaching fire and brimstone. “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand,” says John. He reminds us of the urgency of Advent, and changes in life to which the season calls us. In what ways are we waiting and preparing for the coming of Jesus?

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a Holy Day, will be celebrated on Monday, December 8, 2025. Catholics believe that Mary, from the first moment of her conception, was preserved from original sin. Mary is honored as a model for all humanity in her holiness, purity, and openness to accept God's plan for her. Mass on Monday, December 8th will be at 7:00 am & 6:30 pm.

This Sunday, please find your envelope on the tables in the entrance of Church with a Christmas 2025 message and Christmas/New Year Mass schedule. Our hope is that the schedule is helpful when planning ahead. May we enter deeply into the Advent season, and celebrate with great joy the birth of Jesus among us.

Sincerely in Christ – Fr. Greg

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we welcome Graham Michael Berndt, son of Elina & Chris.

May his life be blessed with spiritual guidance
through his journey with the Lord Jesus Christ
