Dear Parishioners: In Matthew, Jesus spoke of the Kingdom of Heaven to be like a vineyard and harvest, the master and workers. This Sunday, we find the image of a wedding and listen to the account of Jesus' parable of the ten virgins. The Kingdom of Heaven will be like the virgins who waited for the groom's arrival at a wedding. In Jesus' day, the groom would make final arrangements and delay bringing his bride to her new home. Friends of the groom waited. The fooling ones brought no oil with them, and the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Lamps and oil may be linked to good deeds that shine like a lamp on a lamp stand. Like the wise virgins, the parable urges us to be ready and stay awake. The Kingdom of God is already in our midst.

A Youth Encounter for high school students is taking place at Immaculate Conception Parish this weekend. Please pray for these students and their leaders. Parishes and Bishop Baraga Catholic School serve the needs of our young people well. I have asked the Carmelite Sisters to pray for our families.

All Day Eucharistic Adoration will take place at our Parish on Thursday, November 12th. The day will begin with Mass at 7:00 am, adoration all day, and the Benediction at 4:50 pm. The monthly Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus Mass will be celebrated at 5:30 pm, followed by the Knight's meeting in the Parish Hall.

Looking ahead, mass on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 26th will be at 8:00 am.

May God bless us as we approach the final days of our Church liturgical year - Fr. Greg
